A Note From Rick: Markets were softer again this week at TLA, except for butcher cows. The cow market was steady to stronger, which was a bit of a surprise. Fat cattle, both native & Holsteins, were definitely weaker. The calf market was weaker again this week as well; these two markets have fallen significantly from the highs that were set not too long ago. Dairy cattle prices have seemed to hold steady; they are off slightly, but nothing like the calves & fats. I look for these prices to stabilize & maybe even rebound a bit in the near future. I don't believe these markets are in a free fall type situation. Have a great week & we hope to see you soon at TLA!!
