A Note from Rick: A very strong week for markets at TLA. All three of our biggest weekly markets were considerably higher. We had a larger than normal run of Springers & Fresh Cows during our weekly dairy sale & prices were very strong. The calf market took the biggest jump with prices nearly $75 higher on the average. This is a nice rebound for this market as it's been on the slide for the last 4 to 6 weeks. The butcher cow market was $4 to $6 higher as well, compared to last week. This market seems to be creeping back up after recent weakness. I talk about the ups & downs from week to week, but when you compare them to prices from a year ago, there's quite a difference. Springers & Fresh Cows are $1200 to $1500 higher, baby calves are roughly $300 higher & butcher cows are between $20 to $30 higher compared to the previous year. Have a great week & enjoy the beautiful Fall weather!
