A Note From Rick: Markets were steady in every category except for butcher cows, which were weaker. We've been on a stretch of steadily higher prices for butcher cows & fat cattle over the last 5 to 6 weeks. Prices this week were significantly lower. This isn't a big surprise, as typically we've seen these two markets slip downward following the Christmas & New Year Holiday season. We're getting a good dose of January winter weather! Stay warm & stay safe! See you soon at TLA!!
