A Note From Rick: It was a busy week at TLA & markets were stronger across the board. Tuesday was a sale day that sticks out to me in my eight years of being at TLA. Markets were stronger in volume & price all day long, starting with the hay sale & right through the springers and fresh cows. This was followed by calves & feeders, then finished with butcher cows. I don't remember very many Tuesdays where there was a significant gain in prices in each & every one of these markets. Thursday's springer sale was very strong on the top end, but had a little more variation in price from top to bottom. Averages on the top 25, 50 & 100 were very similar to the February sale, but the overall average was down. The middle & bottom end of the market was down a little. Have a great week & we hope to see you soon at TLA!
