

YOUR AWAKEN '25 GUEST SPEAKER

Bishop Clint Brown can be described as a modern day David. For over 25 years, his musical gifts in leading praise and worship have rewritten the soundtrack for churches across the world and transformed the sound of recorded gospel music. As Grammy award-winning artist and songwriter, Clint Brown has penned songs for Fred Hammond, Martha Munizzi, John P. Kee, Marvin Winans, Micah Stampley and countless of other modern gospel artist.

In 1992, Clint Brown moved to Orlando, FL to follow God's plan for him to pastor. Within a few years, his ministry produced FaithWorld, a nationally recognized church in Orlando, FL that was home to over 6,000 members in church and online. He hosted the annual "Judah Music Conference", a mega concert headlined by major gospel artists like Israel Houghton, BJ Putnam and many more, playing to over 100,000 registered guests from around the world.

Pastor Clint Brown has shared the stage with the greatest Christian speakers of this generation including Bishop T.D. Jakes, Bishop Paul S. Morton, Benny Hinn, Pastor Creflo Dollar, Pastor Paula White and Pastor Rod Parsley. His value to the church is beyond compare. He is a man that can speak to and connect deeply to this generation with a word of encouragement and hope.

In 2014, God shifted Bishop Clint Brown into a new dimension to re-launch the vision of the ministry with a new name, Judah Church. Today, Judah is home to a large congregation of people that are involved in casting out the vision of Isaiah 61. The ministry is persistent in presenting Jesus Christ to the people living in Orlando and across the world through acts of feeding the homeless, providing resources to shelters and schools, participating in annual Cancer walks, holiday drives and building wells in third-world countries.
