

AWAKENED 2025

By: Pastor Travis Watkins FGCI General Superintendent

What a time we had in the presence of God at Awaken 2025 — our General Conference was nothing short of a divine encounter! From the first worship set to the final altar call, God met us with fresh oil, renewed fire, and prophetic clarity for where we are going as a fellowship.

I want to personally thank every pastor, leader, speaker, and volunteer who made this conference possible. You didn't just attend a meeting — you helped create moments that will be etched in our souls for eternity. We saw new leaders rise, hungry hearts filled, and our shared vision sharpened. I am more convinced than ever: the remnant is rising, and revival is alive within FGCI.

A special thanks to our host: Pastors Darnell West our Missouri Superintendent and Influence Church. You poured out tirelessly last week with joy, excellence and spirit-filled servanthood. Thank you!

To all our new ministers and churches who joined the fellowship during Awaken 2025 — welcome home. You are now part of a legacy rooted in purpose, partnership, and Pentecostal power. We are honored to walk with you as we build together.

As we move forward, here's what you can look forward to:

- Monthly virtual meet-ups designed to keep us connected, encouraged, and equipped
- New ministerial trainings and onboarding tracks to empower emerging leaders
 - Foreign and domestic mission trips that train and release those in our fellowship into greater ministry!
- Our National Women's Conference, National Men's Conference and Youth Conference coming soon — set to pour into leaders, families, and future generations

Let's stay engaged. Let's stay on fire. And let's keep building what God has entrusted to us — a fellowship that's more than organizational... it's relational, revival-ready, and globally minded.

🔥 The best is not behind us — it's ahead of us.
This is your moment. This is your movement. This is FGCI.

FGCI LADIES RETREAT- Important announcement!

by: Rev. Jean Criddle, National Ladies President

Due to circumstances beyond our control, we have had to move the location of our 2025 FGCI ladies retreat. The new location is the Hampton Inn, Saint Robert, Missouri.

This hotel is offering to host us and block 20 rooms at a discount price of $129 plus tax. To get this special rate you must reserve before September 30 and tell them you are with the FGCI ladies' retreat. They have a full hot breakfast on Saturday morning and we will have food catered in for after service on Friday evening.

We NEED your help in getting this information out. Please share this on your page and everywhere that you have seen a flyer about our ladies retreat. I regret to have to make this change at such a late date, but know that this did not take the Lord by surprise, and He has his hand in it. Don't forget to register for the retreat online, pay a $15 at the door for registration, and to order your pink T-shirt to wear on Saturday morning. I can't wait to see you in October!

You can look at the rooms at their website! After September 30 the price of the room will go up in price.

We have new contact info for the General Office!
