About Jimmy Jones and Gavin Productions

The legendary promoter Jimmy Jones first brought national acts to Reading, PA in 1975. He had converted the old Astor Theater, previously a porn movie house into an entertainment show case. The first national act, putting Jimmy Jones and the Astor Theater on the rock concert map, was the legendary “Hall & Oats”. Hall & Oats commented, “What a great vibe playing at the Astor Theater to the 2400 fans in Reading, we will be back”!

That first concert was the beginning of a long love affair between Jimmy Jones, the Astor Theater , and the Rock fans of Reading and Eastern Pennsylvania. Jimmy’s Gavin Productions brought many top national entertainment and concert events to Reading: Jerry Garcia, Billy Joel, Bonnie Raitt, Chicago, Barry Manillow, The Kinks, Allman Brothers, Maria Muldur, Three Dog Night, Aerosmith, Bruce Springsten, Jeff Beck, Jefferson Airplane, Leon Russell, Rick Derringer, and entertainers George Carlin, Bill Crosby, Joan Rivers and too many more to mention.

About “The Jones Gang” Productions

After a hiatus from the concert industry, Jimmy Jones wanted to again bring back the music, concerts, artists and entertainment Gavin Productions had delivered in past years. At the encouragement of friends in the industry Jimmy embarked on restoring the events his audience loved in their youth and grew up with and still love today.
