The Path of the Rose - Day 4

Mary Magdalene In Ecstasy by Caravaggio 1595

Ecstasy of Saint Teresa by Bernini 1647-1652

“I saw in his hand a long spear of gold, and at the iron’s point there seemed to be a little fire. He appeared to me to be thrusting it at times into my heart, and to pierce my very entrails; when he drew it out, he seemed to draw them out also, and to leave me all on fire with a great love of God. The pain was so great, that it made me moan; and yet so surpassing was the sweetness of this excessive pain, that I could not wish to be rid of it. The soul is satisfied now with nothing less than God. The pain is not bodily, but spiritual, though the body has its share in it. It is a caressing of love so sweet, which now takes place between the soul and God that I pray God of His goodness to make him experience it who may think that I am lying.”

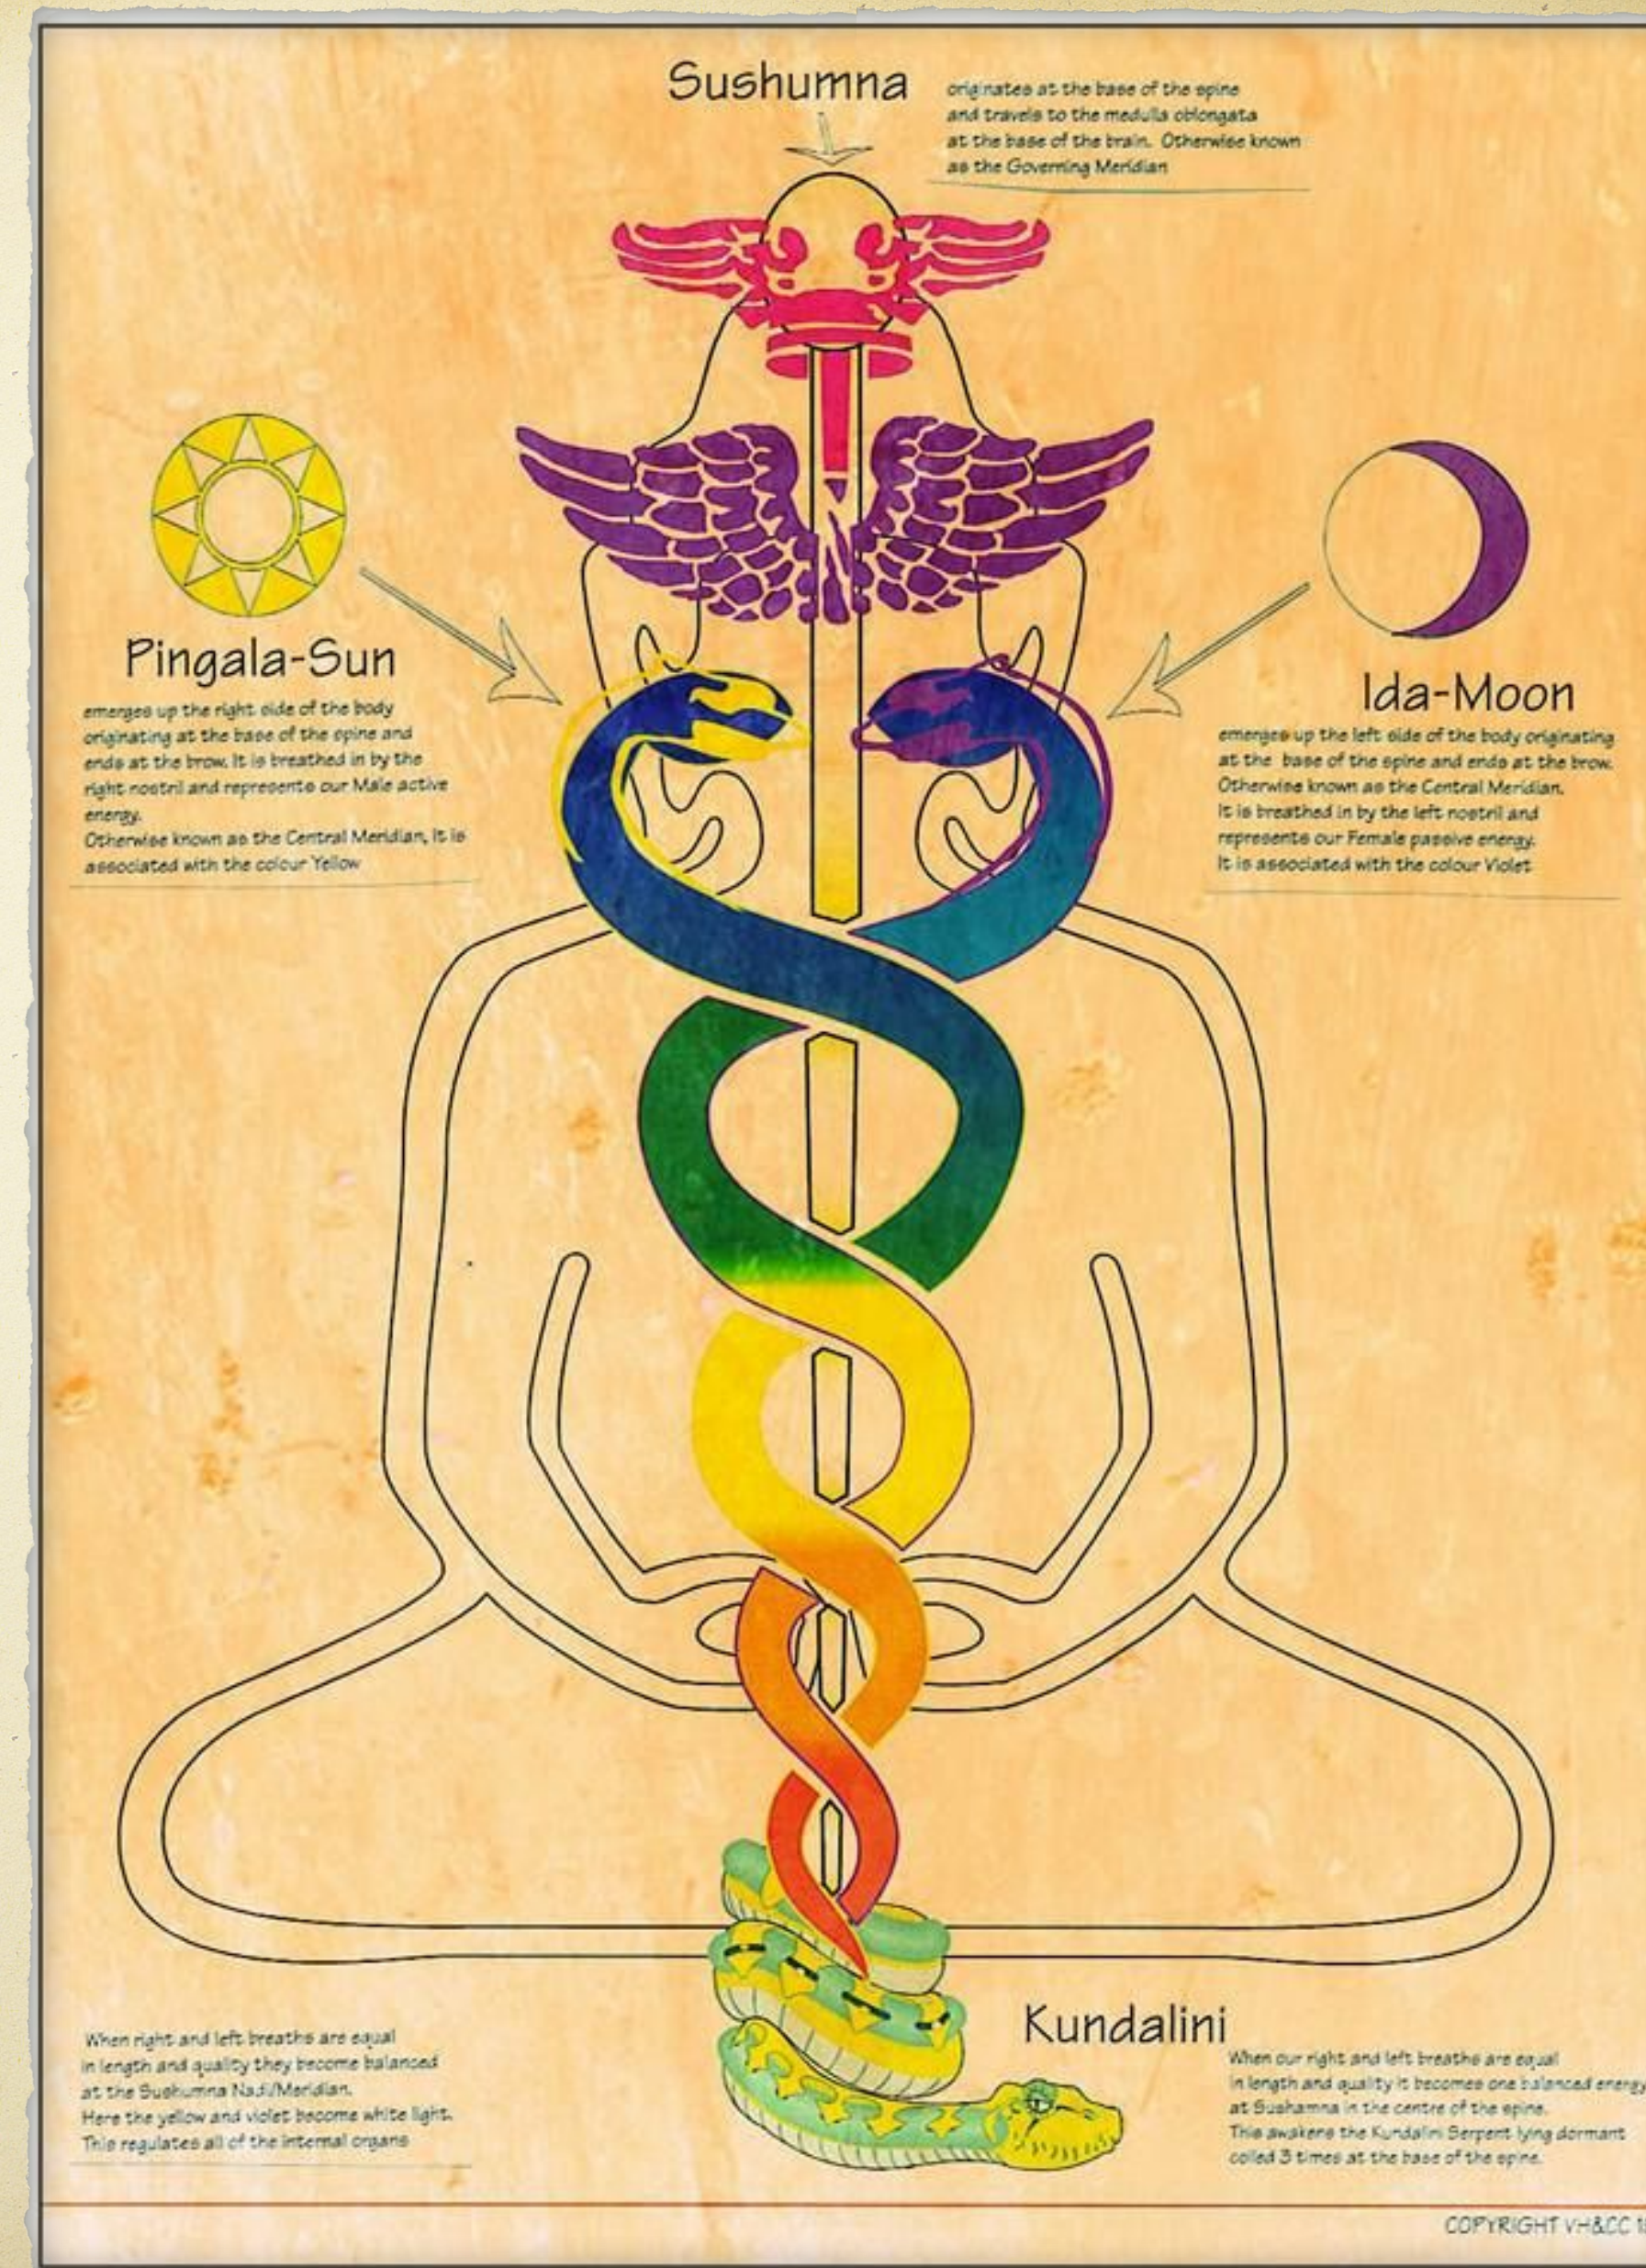

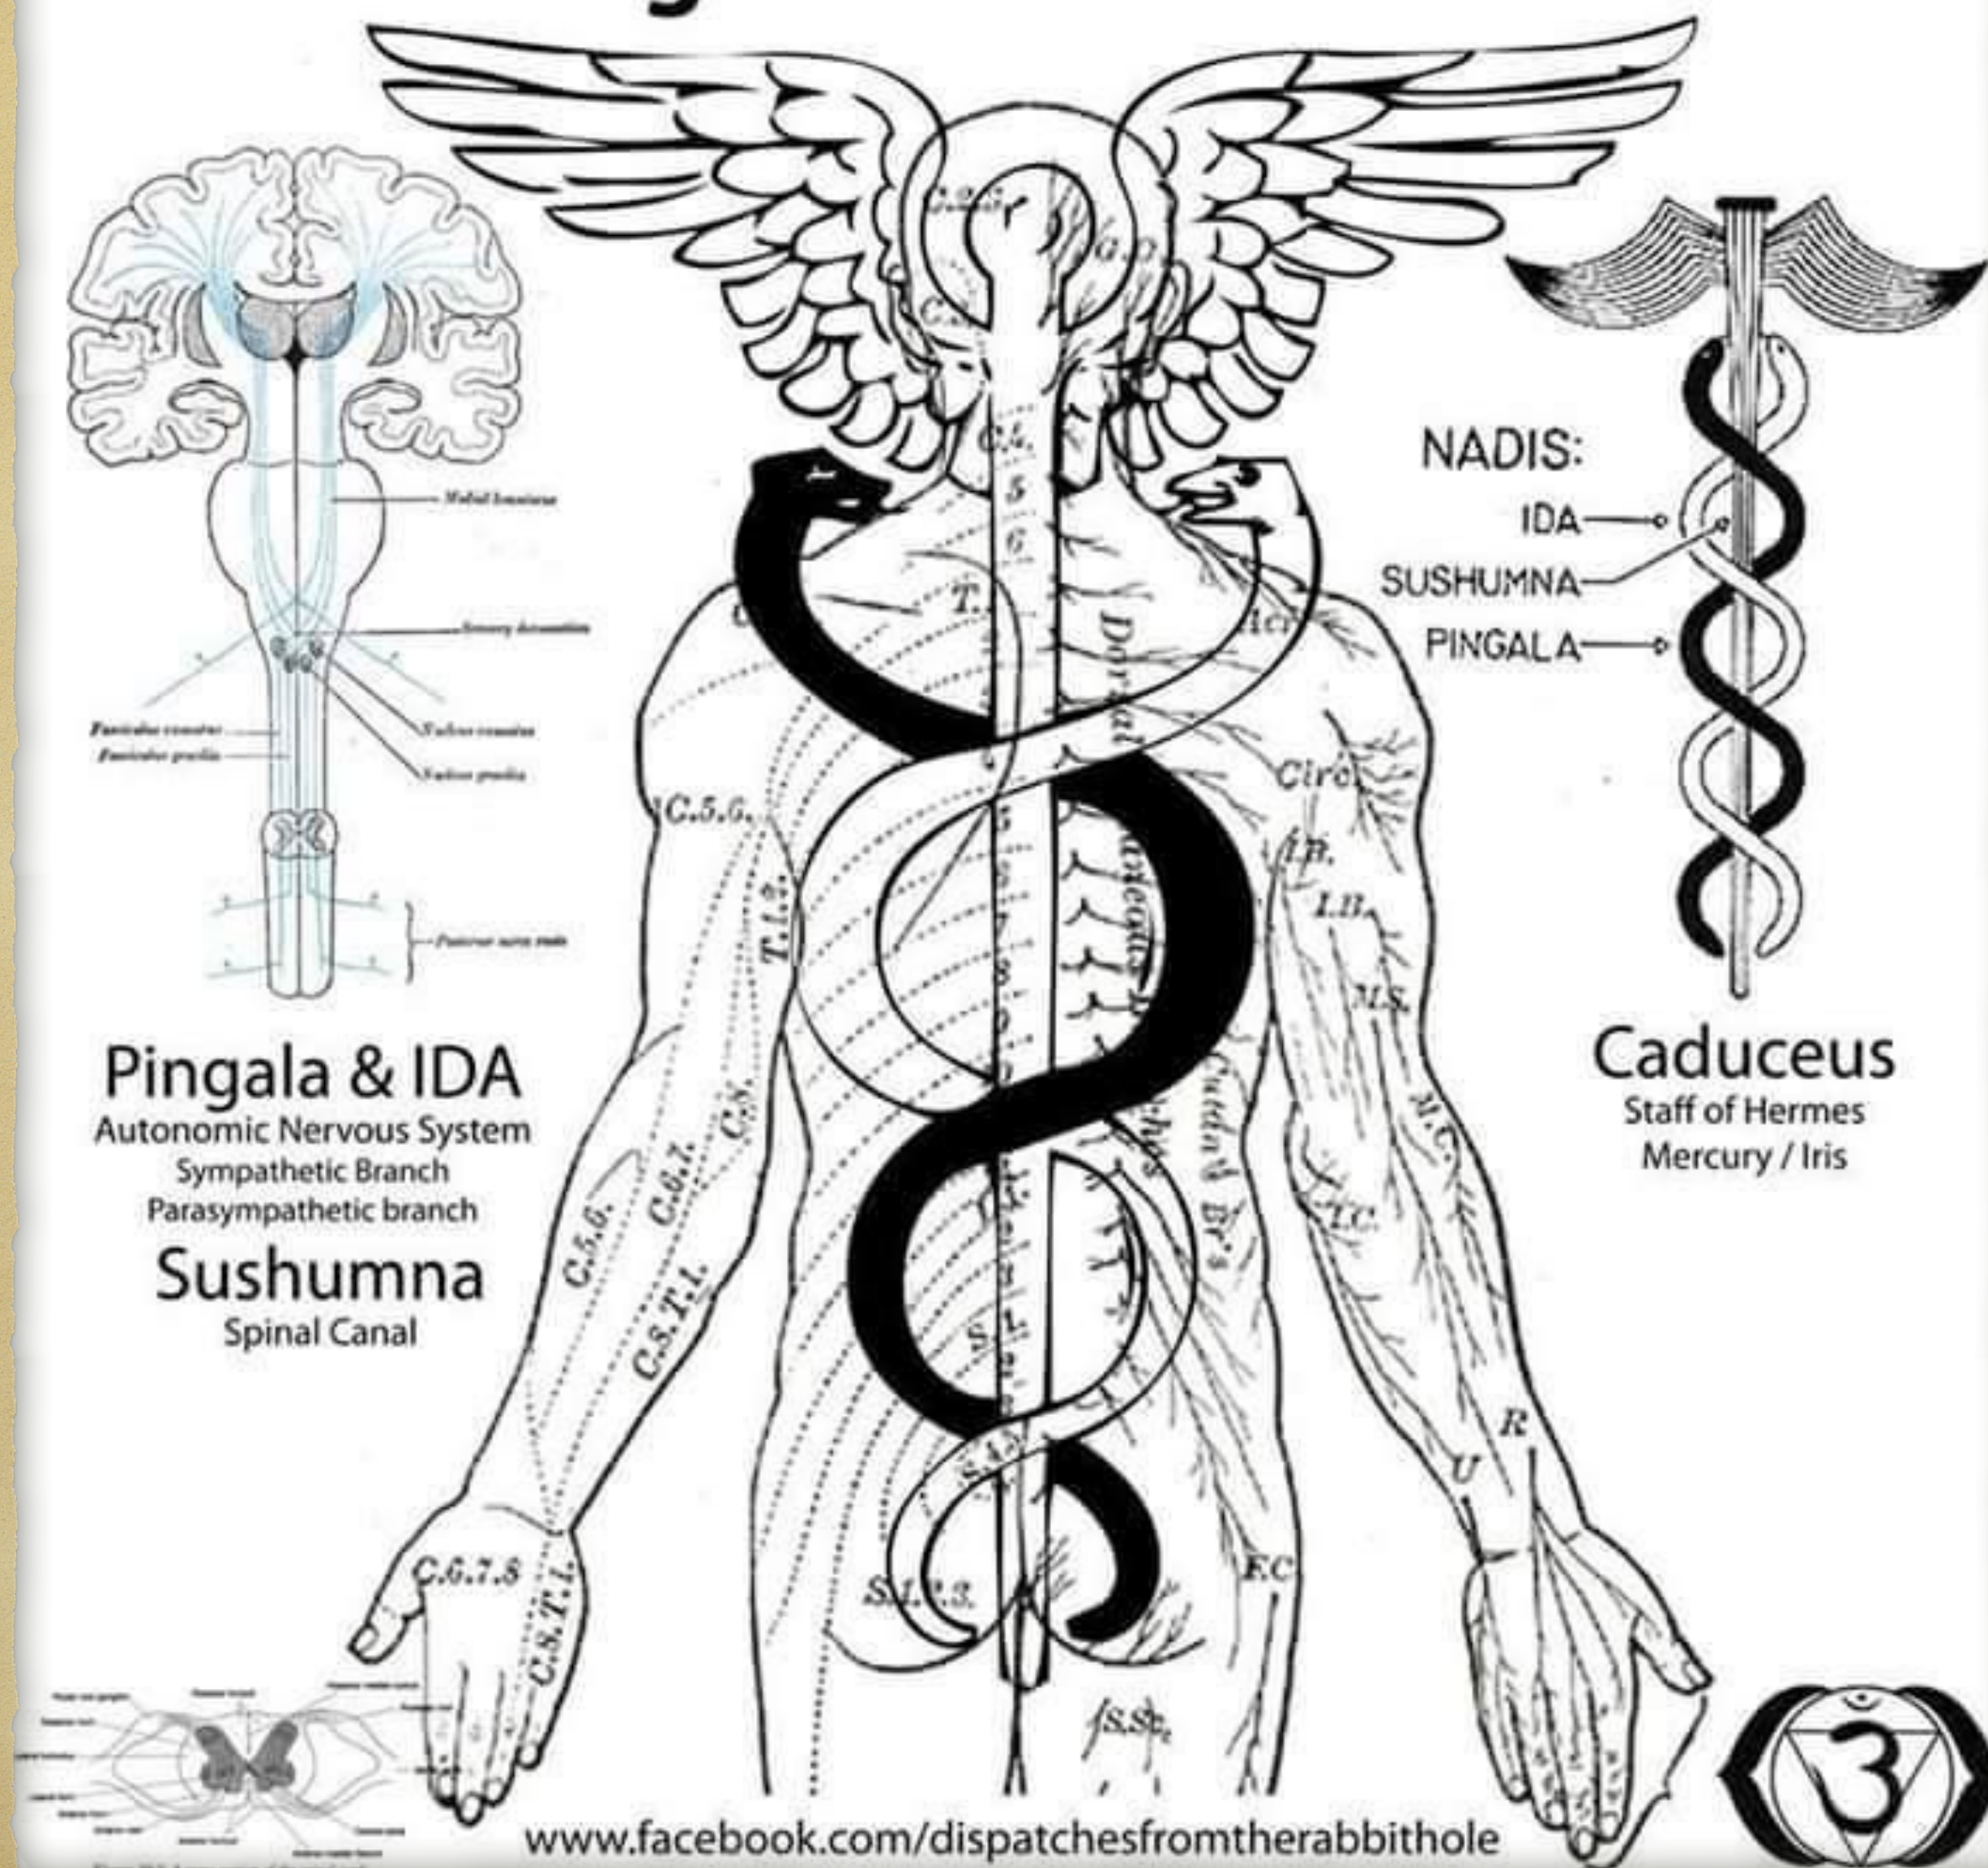

– The Life of Teresa of Jesus (1515-1582 - Teresa of Avila

The Church declared Saint Teresa to be in a state of Spiritual Ecstasy

“Sexual energy is one of our most powerful energies. Most people do not know how to use it, aside from procreation, so this rich source of energy is lost to them. For millennia, Taoists have developed skillful methods of conserving, balancing, and transforming sexual energy for improved physical and mental health, happier and more satisfying relationships, and rapid spiritual growth.”

“Many systems teach the student to bring energy to the crown but do not say anything about providing a vent for it in case of excess Chi in the head, nor do they emphasize bringing the energy back down. In the Healing Tao, it is our experience that this can lead to many negative side effects, including the phenomena of kundalini psychosis and “cooking your brain” - having so much Yang Chi in the head with nowhere else to go that the brain literally overheats and the tissue begins to cook.”

Wilhelm Reich - The Function of the Orgasm & Orgone Energy

- Wilhelm Reich (1897-1957) - Pioneer and Visionary
- Orgone Energy - Life Force Energy
- Pulsing in orgasm was the basic pattern in all living things
- Pulsation in the body is part of the natural expansion of well being
- When restricted that's when neurosis begins - armouring
- Cultural conditioning - children and teens - repressing sexuality
- Integrating Body and Mind through orgasmic embrace
- Unification of your mind, your heart, your emotions and your body in sexual embrace - Mind Body connection - Somatics
- Orgastic Potency - reach cellular level
- Cancer treatment - Organ Accumulator
- Persecuted and Misunderstood

The character structure of modern man, who reproduces a six-thousand-year-old patriarchal authoritarian culture, is typified by characterological armoring against his inner nature and against the social misery which surrounds him. This characterological armoring is the basis of isolation, indigence, craving for authority, fear of responsibility, mystic longing, sexual misery, and neurotically impotent rebelliousness, as well as pathological tolerance. Man has alienated himself from, and has grown hostile toward, life. This alienation is not of a biological but of a socio-economic origin. It is not found in the stages of human history prior to the development of patriarchy.

Psychic health depends upon orgastic potency, i.e., upon the degree to which one can surrender to and experience the climax of excitation in the natural sexual act. It is founded upon the healthy character attitude of the individual's capacity for love. Psychic illnesses are the result of a disturbance of the natural ability to love. In the case of orgastic impotence, from which the overwhelming majority of people suffer, damming-up of biological energy occurs and becomes the source of irrational actions. The essential requirement to cure psychic disturbances is the re-establishment of the natural capacity for love. It is dependent upon social as well as psychic conditions.

Tantra

- Techniques from Esoteric Hinduism relate to reaching the state of unification, the primal bliss of creation and unification with the highest principle, called Shiva, through activating the female archetype of Shakti
- Ancient Tantic text called the “Vijnana Bhairava” meaning “Divine Consciousness” - contains 112 techniques for centring awareness. This text was devoted to the union between the masculine and feminine principles at the highest level
- All the techniques are there for the practitioner to achieve bliss, to experience the oneness of the essence of the Universe and its creation
- In Tantra a woman is the conduit. There is no Tantra without the feminine or the intense memory of her
- Sexual bliss is the gateway to higher consciousness for those who can see that sexual bliss is a form of spiritual bliss
- Sexual Tantra allows for the possibility of spiritual experiences through the means of sexual pleasure
- Warning - these method are to be used with respect and only if you are ready. For those not ready there is always the possibility to fall into addiction and become prey to dark forces.

Examples of Tantra Techniques

- Method 63: If one contemplates simultaneously that one's body and the entire universe consist of nothing but consciousness, then the mind becomes free of thoughts and the supreme awakening occurs
- Method 69: The delight experienced at the time of sexual union when the female energy is excited and when the absorption into her is completed, is similar to spiritual bliss and that bliss is said to be that of the self
- Method 70: Oh goddess! In the absence of a woman there is a flood of delight by merely remembering the sexual joy experienced
