FACILITIES & SERVICES NEAR BY

Riverside Cafe Bar and Restaurant is conveniently located downstairs, with a pool table, darts board and a well stocked bar.

When we are not open Dyce hosts many other venues and hotels who all are happy to welcome you to their own restaurants, we recommend The Dunavon on Victoria road.

Victoria road is the main street in the village where you will find hairdressers, Tesco express, the post office, off license and Dyce railway station all within a 10 min walk. There are lots of options for takeaway food, Domino's and Gregg's are both just a short walk away, Sea Salt and Soul, the best fish and chips in the local area are next to the railway station where you will also find the Spiders Web for pub food and live football.

There is a large Asda at the local Shopping Centre in Dyce, you will also find Boots the chemist, Subway, Timpsons, Tanning salon, Dyce Dental practice, Duncan and Todd Opticians and Card factory in the same complex.

EXPLORE THE LOCAL AREA

We are located next to some of the most scenic riverside walks in the area, which are part of Aberdeen's Grandholm estate.

You can spot all types of wild life from solitary bumble bees to Swans. Riverside has recently become home to a mating pair of red squirrels who we see frequently around the venue looking for treats left behind by customers.

We apologies in advance if our resident wood pecker disturbs you in the morning.

ENJOY YOUR STAY

Although we anticipate you will have everything you need please don't hesitate to get in touch if there is anything we have missed.

We are available by telephone during regular business hours alongside our venue opening times. However if you have an emergency you can call at anytime.

Room refresh - Mid stay freshen up will be given to guests staying for longer than 7 consecutive days, we will change the bedding and towels and give the property a clean.

Clean towels are always available on request.
