On behalf of Amun Ra Inc., I would like to thank everyone who gave their time and energy to bring about this 3rd Annual Juneteenth Cultural Celebration—our first ever “Four Days of Juneteenth.” We look forward to everyone enjoying themselves as we honor the emancipation of enslaved African Americans in the United States.

Special thanks to the many volunteers who committed to the goal of creating this event, which almost didn’t happen this year due to several challenges. However, with each year growing larger and more impactful—and this being our first four-day Juneteenth—this proves that with God, all things are possible.

I cannot say enough to thank Michael Smith Sr. and the Board of Directors of Amun Ra Inc. for insisting that, despite the obstacles before us, we move forward with the spectacular 2025 Juneteenth Cultural Celebration. Their motivation and commitment were unmatched.

We are also incredibly grateful to our sponsors, including the UKCJC (United Kingdom Church of Jesus Christ), and Walmart—our first contributor this year—who got the ball rolling. All our sponsors are listed in this brochure, and each one played a vital role.

While we had to scale back on entertainment this year, we placed greater emphasis on our youth and on education for both adults and elders. With less than a month to plan, raise funds, and prepare, we still managed to create our first four-day Juneteenth event—beginning Thursday, June 19th, with a wreath-laying ceremony at the slave memorial in Franklin to honor our enslaved ancestors, and concluding Sunday, June 22nd, with a Gospel Explosion for our youth.

In between, this year’s celebration is packed with elements from our first two years—recognitions of Nat Turner and the Black Panther Party for Self-Defense, live entertainment, vendors, and much more.

God willing, next year will be even more spectacular.

Saving the best for last, I absolutely must thank God for giving me the vision and means to bring this opportunity to life—an opportunity to celebrate Juneteenth and to change the narrative surrounding one of our greatest fighters for emancipation: Nat Turner. Born here in Southampton County, he died for what all Americans demand—freedom and equality.

Gregory McLemore
President / CEO, Amun Ra Inc.

WHAT IS SPECTACULAR ABOUT JUNETEENTH CULTURAL CELEBRATION

“Four Days of Juneteenth”

Juneteenth celebrates the unique culture of African Americans—and all Americans who embrace the emancipation of those once enslaved for profit. African Americans have thrived in creating many of the traditions that are now synonymous with American identity, particularly in the arts, including literature, music, fashion, and sports.

Juneteenth is not just an African American holiday—it is an American holiday. It celebrates culture, unity, triumph over evil, and national pride. Juneteenth is a cultural celebration for everyone. The Spectacular Juneteenth Cultural Celebration was created by Councilman Gregory McLeMore for the City of Franklin as part of a five-year plan to establish a national tourist destination in a county that played a significant role in both slavery and the emancipation that Juneteenth commemorates.

The Juneteenth Cultural Celebration is a multi-day event held in June, around the weekend of June 19th—the official Juneteenth holiday. This year marks the third year of the celebration. By design, it is meant to be larger, grander, and longer than any other Juneteenth celebration in Virginia, as we pursue our goal of creating a national tourist destination in Franklin/Southampton County—built on the foundation of our rich emancipation history.

The theme for our third annual Juneteenth Cultural Celebration is “Four Days of Juneteenth.” In our first two years, the celebration lasted only three days. This year, as we expand, we also aim to present a new narrative surrounding one of Southampton’s own—Nat Turner.

For over a century, Nat Turner—known worldwide—has been portrayed in a deeply negative light. Yet to millions of enslaved people, abolitionists, and descendants of the enslaved, he was seen as a freedom fighter and a hero.

Ain’t no stopping the truth—or the 3rd Annual “Four-Day Spectacular Juneteenth Cultural Celebration.”

Spectacular Juneteenth Cultural Celebration Black History Reflections

Black History Reflections is just another part of the Spectacular Juneteenth cultural celebration that is about reflecting pride in the historical contributions and struggles made by African Americans that we tend to forget as we move on with our lives. A time in the celebration to pay respect and educate one another facts that have been buried with our ancestors. Black History is not a month it is the history of not only the United States but of the world. From the oldest human fossils found in Africa to the baby that was born today. Black History is to never ever be buried or extinguished again so let's reflect on history!!!

YOU SHOULD KNOW EVERY ONE OF THESE ACCOMPLISHED
PEOPLE. THE BLANK SPACE IS FOR YOU

Honoring the Native Heroes of Southampton County, Virginia

Champions of Freedom, Justice, and Legacy, Southampton County, Virginia, holds sacred ground—a land shaped by resilience, defiance, and the unyielding pursuit of liberty. From the fields of revolt to the halls of legal battle, the region has birthed and harbored heroes whose legacies echo through the corridors of American history. This page honors five powerful figures: Nat Turner, Dred Scott, Anthony Gardener, John Brown, and James Magee—men whose lives and actions formed a tapestry of resistance, justice, and enduring truth.

Nat Turner (1800–1831)

Prophet. Rebel. Martyr.

Born into slavery in Southampton County, Nat Turner was a deeply spiritual man who claimed visions and signs from God. In 1831, he led one of the most significant slave uprisings in U.S. history—the Nat Turner Rebellion—fighting to free himself and others from bondage. Though the rebellion was ultimately suppressed, Turner's courage sparked intense national debate over slavery and ignited the flame of abolition. His life and sacrifice remain a haunting testament to the cost of freedom and the power of conviction.

"I was born for some great purpose..." – Nat Turner

Dred Scott (c. 1799–1858)

Symbol of Legal Injustice. Catalyst for Change.

Though most known for the infamous Dred Scott v. Sandford Supreme Court decision, Scott's early life traces back to Southampton County. Enslaved and denied basic human rights, he bravely pursued legal action for his freedom after being taken into free territories. The Court's 1857 ruling—that no Black person could be a U.S. citizen—outraged the nation and helped accelerate the path to the Civil War. Dred Scott's fight exposed the moral bankruptcy of slavery and the urgent need for justice.

Anthony Gardener (Dates Unknown)

Forgotten Patriot. Native Son.

Little documented but long remembered in local oral histories, Anthony Gardener is recognized as a native Black patriot of Southampton County. Stories speak of a man who resisted servitude and helped protect his community from violent retribution during the unrest of the 19th century. Though details of his life remain veiled by time, Gardener stands as a reminder that not all heroes are found in books—some live in the soul of the land and the memory of the people.

John Brown (1800–1859)

Abolitionist Warrior. Conscience of a Nation.

Though not born in Southampton County, John Brown was forever linked to its legacy. Inspired by Nat Turner's rebellion, Brown believed armed insurrection was the only path to abolish slavery. His 1859 raid on Harpers Ferry became a pivotal moment in American history. Brown revered Turner as a kindred spirit and often invoked Southampton's soil as sacred ground. He called for solidarity between races in the fight for freedom and died for that vision—a martyr to the cause of liberation.

James Magee (Dates Unknown)

Educator. Organizer. Hidden Hero.

James Magee, a lesser-known yet critical figure, worked tirelessly in postbellum Southampton to uplift the freed Black population through education and civic engagement. He helped establish schools and promoted literacy, believing knowledge was the key to long-term freedom. Magee's quiet leadership empowered generations to rise above oppression and reclaim their identity in a society still shadowed by racism.

Legacy in the Land

These men—rebels, thinkers, educators, and fighters—represent the spiritual and historical backbone of Southampton County. Their lives speak to universal themes of justice, resistance, and the indomitable will of a people who refused to be broken.

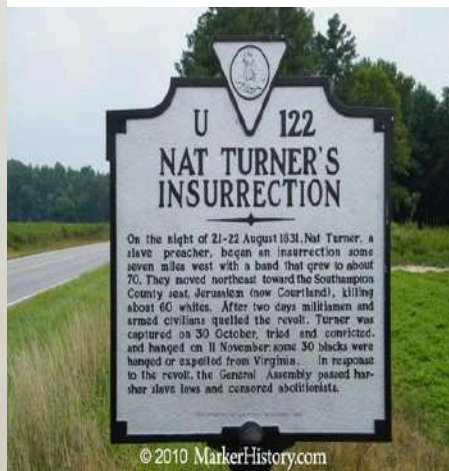

May we remember them not just in memory, but in action.

"The arc of the moral universe is long, but it bends toward justice." – Martin Luther King Jr.

Nat Turner Story Tour

The Nat Turner Story tour is designed to take a shot at changing the traditional American narrative of a brutal killer to the reality of a man who gave his life trying to bring an end to the worst form of human slavery that civilization has ever known. Nat Turner born right here in Southampton County and is known throughout the entire world by most civilized and educated people for his 1831 insurrection and rebellion to emancipate and bring an end to the slavery of African American born slaves in the United States. The brutality and brutal acts he was accused of committing pales in comparison to the horrific acts of inhumanity and violence that was legalized against an entire race of people, whose sole existence was to serve and literally take care of. The most ironic portion of the American Nat Turner narrative is that he himself never actually killed anyone, his men and comrades did the killing under his command. If we refuse to correct the distorted inaccurate history now while we can the truth will remain untold and distorted. Another lie the American history narrative tells is the inaccurate description that he is portrayed as a dark skinned animalistic looking individual. In fact, he was what was referred to as a mulatto of mixed black and white race. The main thing that makes our Nat Turner Story Tour so unique and special is that there are 5 stops on the tour that are all hosted by direct descendants of Nat Turner's bloodline. All but one stop on the tour is on the exact land where Nat Turner was born, lived, hid out and traveled. A special event that makes our Juneteenth truly a cultural event and celebration unlike any other in the country. This event would not have been possible without the help and support of Ms. Shelly Lucas Wood, Khalifah Muhammad and the other blood descendants of the great Nat Turner.

Deacon Linwood M. Holland

APRIL 27TH, 1923 - FEBRUARY 16TH, 2023

Linwood's proudest accomplishment was undoubtedly his experience as a Montford Point Marine in the World War II, beginning on June 30th 1942, the Montford Point Marines were not trained in the traditional boot camps of Parris Island South Carolina, or San Diego, California instead, African American Recruits were segregated and experienced basic training at Montford Point, a newly established training area at Camp Lejeune, North Carolina. Prefabricated, but dilapidated huts used as barracks were filled beyond capacity. Undeterred by such living conditions, the overt racism and segregation of the era, and surrounded by an air of constant doubt about their capabilities, these men, who would become known as the Montford Point Marines, persevered and paved the way for those who followed. In 2012, the United States Congress authorized the congressional gold medal, the nation's highest civil award, to be awarded to each of the 200,000 Montford Point Marines.

OUR PURPOSE

TO INFORM AND FAMILIARIZE THE AMERICAN PUBLIC AND COMMUNITIES OF THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THE AMERICAN FEDERAL HOLIDAY JUNETEENTH AND ITS RELEVANT
IMPORTANCE TO HEALING OUR NATION OF ONE OF THE WORST CHAPTERS IN OUR HISTORY AS A NATION

DEVELOP MORE PRIDE AND TOGETHERNESS AMONGST THE CITIZENRY IN OUR COMMUNITIES
THROUGHOUT THE NATION.

WE WILL DEVELOP ALL TYPES OF LITERATURE, ACTIVITIES AND EVENTS THAT WILL HELP THE COMMUNITY AND THE NATION TO SEE HOW IMPORTANT JUNETEENTH IS REGARDING FREEDOM AND JUSTICE FOR ALL.

OUR PLAN IS TO SETUP AN ONGOING GROUP OF EVENTS AND ACTIVITIES ALL YEAR LONG AT SCHOOLS, CHURCHES, PARKS AND ANYPLACE THAT WE CAN ENLIGHTEN PEOPLE ABOUT JUNETEENTH, ITS ORIGIN, HISTORY AND IMPORTANCE.

WE PLAN TO HAVE SOME LARGE EVENTS EACH YEAR TO BE OUR MAJOR FUNDRAISERS TO
