Greetings Parishioners,

I always love opportunities when our two parishes team up! It was nice leading several book studies with both parishes. I love how both parishes work together in the PSR program as both teachers and students support one another. I also realize the importance of not combining things too much ... because each parish has their own distinct identity. But I admit I love when our parishes pray and play together! If you are interested in cheering on the combined parish basketball teams which includes both St. Joe's and Sacred Heart kiddos here is their schedule. This is just another way for us Catholics to live in unity and cheer for our combined sports team the mighty PANTHERS!!!

The Church in Latin America

For many in Latin American and the Caribbean, a rising secular culture, difficult rural terrain, and a shortage of ministers all present obstacles to practicing the faith. Your support for next week's collection provides lay leadership training, catechesis, priestly and religious formation, and other programs to share our Catholic faith with those who long to hear the Good News of Christ. To learn more about how your gifts make a difference, visit: www.usccb.org/latin-america.
