Dear Parishioners,

This summer we have some outside liturgies planned so we can enjoy God a little more in nature during the Sacred liturgies. I always prefer Mass in our beautiful Churches but I'm not opposed to outside celebrations. With this being said, on Memorial Day morning, Monday May 30th, we will have an outside Mass near the Sacred Heart cemetery. At 9:00am. Also on Monday morning, July 4th we will have a Mass outside at our St. Joseph Crestline cemetery at 9am. And finally we are planning a kids focused outside Mass at Sacred Heart on Wednesday evening, July 13th at 6:30pm followed by a small picnic and kickball game. Please join us for these outside Masses and events!

Speaking of summer events I have decided to lead a men's book study along with a women's book study this summer. Last week in the bulletin I explained the woman's book study. Please reach out to Bonnie at the St. Joe's office for details (bcochran@stjosephcrestline.org). And this week I would like to explain the guy's book study. This men's book club is officially starting Wednesday July 6th. I will be leading the study of the book "An Exorcist Explains the Demonic" by Father Gabriele Amorth. Meetings will be the 1st Wednesday of each month following adoration, start time at 830pm at Webers Bar in Shelby. We will be discussing the introduction and first two chapters at the first meeting. Email Adam Paynter at apthedpt@gmail.com or talk to me about any questions. We hope to see all the fellas there!

I look forward to these summer events!

In Christ,
Fr. Jeff
