Dear Parishioners,

I would like to highlight some of our May activities that are happening at Sacred Heart School. Through these activities we encounter firsthand that shows us God is good all the time.

Our 7th and 8th grade students had an educational and wonderful time touring Washington DC. This was a great way to experience firsthand the history of our country. One of the many highlights was praying the rosary at the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception.

Our 5th and 6th grade students had a wonderful time attending the Faith and Science Camp at Damascus! Most of their days were spent outside surrounded by God's beauty. Every aspect of the retreat is the message of the Gospel. Lessons reinforce key connections to the saints and scripture.

As a school family we will be crowing Mary at our 8:30am Mass on May 6th at Sacred Heart Church. Everyone is invited to bring flowers for Mary.

Our 5th and 6th grade students will attend DARE Rally on May 13th. We are very fortunate to have Deputy Martin explain the importance of saying NO to drugs.

May 13th is our final Academic Challenge meet. We have 21 students participating in Academic Challenge this school year.

On May 17th all are welcome to celebrate us at our Graduation Mass. High School and college graduates will have a reserved pew for this Mass.

May 18th we will also be celebrating our Preschool and Kindergarteners at their graduation at 5:30pm @ Sacred Heart Church.

May 19th Sacred Heart Alumni Senior Walk @ 2:15pm. Any Sacred Heart Alumni graduating senior are invited to attend this event. We are meeting at the SH school.

May 20th is our Green Grass Gala @ 6:30pm. This event will showcase our students' musical talents all are invited to attend this outdoor event. It will take place in the yard on the east side of the gym (the kickball field). Please bring a blanket or a lawn chair to sit on. Light refreshments will also be served at this event. We will also be showcasing our students' art and STREAM projects. Lastly, we will have a silent auction at this event. The money raised will go towards the Heart of Bethlehem.

May 21st is our last day of school. We shared many personal best moments, academic and spiritual growth and many smiles and laughs. Our school is a safe, encouraging place where children are loved, challenged and have the opportunity to keep excelling academically, spiritually and personally.

God is good all the time!
God Bless, Lisa Myers, Principal
