Weaving God's Unfinished Tapestry

From Rev. Haydie

It'll be here before we know it: Lent, the church's season of reflection, repentance, and re-centering. Of recommitting ourselves to the things that matter most. Of reclaiming hope and preparing our hearts for the joy of Easter morning.

But first, we party! We'll celebrate Mardi Gras at 6pm on Tuesday, February 17. We'll come together in the Parish Hall for a festive supper of pancakes, sausage, and more. There will be masks and beads, good food and good company. Traditionally called "Shrove Tuesday" by Anglicans, this celebration offers us a chance to celebrate our blessings before setting a few of them aside for a while.

Our Lenten season itself will begin at 7pm on Ash Wednesday, February 18, with the traditional service of communion and the imposition of ashes. On that night, we'll admit that we come to God mourning and poor in spirit, dismayed by the frailties of our lives and our world. We'll admit how powerless we feel. How hopeless our hunger for righteousness can seem. And then we'll come to God's table, where we'll be reminded that we are, indeed, blessed and forgiven. That we and all we care for are held in God's loving hands.

As Lent continues, we'll keep coming together. We'll continue our regular First Friday Concert-and-Compline series: mark your calendars now for this month's event on February 6! But we'll also add a series of Lenten Soup Suppers at 6pm on alternate Tuesdays: that is, on February 24, March 10, and March 24. At 7pm, after we've eaten, we'll move to the church for the short and lovely candlelit service of Sung Compline.

May yours be a blessed and holy Lent.

Midterm Gift Bags

The Midterm Care Package project is in full swing! We are taking orders and donations throughout the month of February. If you can help to advertise, please contact Kathleen Kangas. You can distribute flyers or post on social media. We are open to other advertising ideas! There will be sign up sheets available in Parish Hall soon for those willing to contribute home made baked goods and to help with deliveries. For $20, anyone can send a package filled with treats, study aids, games, and most importantly, love. As always, you can donate in cash, check or online at the Parish website. If you want your gift delivered to a specific student, staff or faculty member, please fill out the online order form giving us contact information for the recipient. Spread the word now. Order deadline is Friday, February 27.

Annual Meeting

Trinity's Annual Meeting on January 25 was not only cheerful but relatively brief—excellent qualities in almost any meeting! If you missed it, copies of the Annual Report are still available in the church office. The report includes the annual budget.

Congregants chosen for new roles included Kathleen Kangas and Roberta Turner, each elected to a three-year term on vestry; Susan Goslee, elected to a three year term on the Planned Giving Committee; and Timothy Cole and Scott Bouman, elected as delegate and alternate, respectively, to the Diocese of Idaho's 2026 Convention. Outgoing vestry members were recognized for their service over the last three years, as was outgoing Senior Warden Miffy Lane.

Trinity's Senior Warden for 2026 will be Diane Nelson, who brings a wealth of experience to the task. Diane filled this position faithfully and effectively during several of the years when Trinity didn't have a priest. More recently she's served on vestry and the Planned Giving Committee. She's built and managed each year's budget while keeping track of Trinity's investment accounts and more.

The Senior Warden is the lay leader of any Episcopal congregation. He or she is appointed by the priest and is the first person the priest turns to for perspective, guidance and help. That appointment can be renewed for a second or third year, but it doesn't have to be. Right now, we're just grateful to have Diane as Senior Warden for this year!

Weavers

Episcopal Church Weavers (ECW) met January 24th in the parish hall. We discussed the possibility of having a rummage sale this summer since it is such a good fundraiser. A decision will be made at our February meeting. We will also prepare the bags for Midterm Care Packages in February because midterm bags need filled on March 1. We gave $500 to Rev. Diane to meet needs of the Trans population at Pocatello Women's Correctional Center. Rev. Diane will communicate with the prison volunteer coordinator to determine the exact items currently needed and purchase them.

Much of our time was spent planning for Lenten and Easter week activities. We planned a Mardi Gras Pancake Supper on Shrove Tuesday, February 17, at 6:00 pm. During Lent there will be sung Compline services every other Tuesday evening at 7:00 pm. We will host Soup Suppers in the parish hall at 6:00 pm prior to those Compline services. We will also be hosting a meal at 6:00 pm on Maundy Thursday, April 2. After the meal, Rev. Haydie will serve Communion at our dinner table. Then we will all go over to the church for a short service which will include stripping the altar.

"Our work, in every season, no matter the weather
—our work is to show up every day, in every place,
using all we are to show the world love's victory
until God's work is fully and gloriously done on earth
as it is in heaven."

Bishop Criag Loya

Trinity Reads

This month's book is For Such a Time as This: An Emergency Devotional. Written by Hanna Reichel, a professor at Princeton Theological Seminary, the book offers thirty short (4-5 page) reflections on the challenge of living faithfully in difficult times. It draws on scripture, history, and tradition to help readers work through their own responses to the present moment. We'll meet to talk about it at 7:00 pm on Tuesday, March 3.
