Weaving God's Unfinished Tapestry

August 2022

Every month I am reminded that next month looms, and it's time to write a new letter. I am convinced that each month is shorter than the last, but the calendar tells me that June was only one day shorter than May, and that July, in fact, is one day longer than June. So yes, "thirty days hath September" and so on, but thirty days seems more like a week passing. A whole year? That's more like a couple of months.

My time-warp experience is common among humans, especially as we age. It makes sense, because every day of our lives is a smaller proportion of our lifespan than the preceding day. Remember as a kid when fifteen minutes seemed like an eternity, and compare how quickly in adulthood the years slide past.

In spite of our human perceptions of time, the clock moves at a measured pace. The clock reflects the daily spinning of our earth, the monthly orbit of the moon, and our annual orbit around the sun. We, and everybody and everything around us, are all moving on this same majestic timescale. God's great timescale. It doesn't speed up, and it doesn't slow down. In our own short visits to His great clockworks we perceive that time moves at different rates, but our perceptions fool us.

God's time is eternal, ours is not. So it behooves us to make good use of our allotment. Joining the community that is Trinity Episcopal Church allows us to become part of an entity that, while mortal, has a longer lifespan than we humans do. In fact, in taking the Sacraments, we join the body of believers who have preceded us, and those who will follow. We have a tiny taste of eternity, and we figuratively become part of the immortal body that is the Holy Trinity itself, the great maker and keeper of time.

Every second is precious, as is all time from Alpha to Omega. We are a part of eternity, but we're only given a short time to participate in it. Make the best of your share, for yourselves, for your communities, for your world, and above all, for God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

Prayerfully Yours,

Tom

From Rev. Haydie

Happy August! It's high summer: the season of fresh tomatoes, sweet corn, and end-of summer travels.

This year, I'll be one of the travelers. On August 14, when I'd usually be at Trinity, Anne and I will be in Wisconsin at a memorial service for her sister Lisa. That means I'll miss my usual office hours on Friday 8/12 and Monday 8/15. But I'm normally in the office every Monday and Friday from 10-2 (and often at other times as well), so please feel free to stop in and visit.

Several Trinity grandchildren are traveling as well, spending time at Paradise Point church camp in McCall. From the photos, it looks like they're having a wonderful time!

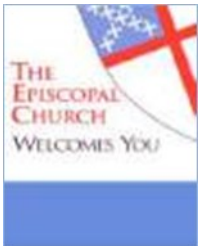

Bishop Jos is also on the road. In the four weeks since his consecration, he's already visited congregations from Alta to Caldwell—to say nothing of the church's General Convention in Baltimore. He and his wife Kimby are now on their way to the Lambeth Conference in England, where he may well be the newest of the Anglican bishops assembled from across the world. We're looking forward to seeing him at Trinity in October.

With so many congregants traveling, I'm especially grateful to the ushers, readers, worship leaders, coffee hour hosts, altar guild members... to all those who are keeping our worship services and day-to-day operations going. There's still lots going on at Trinity, even in August: My Brother's Table, exercise class, the book group, planning meetings, a few funerals... It takes a village, and I feel very blessed to be part of this community!

Stay cool; stay safe. And enjoy the rest of your summer!

Exploring Episcopal Faith

Want to learn more about Anglican faith? Interested in confirmation, baptism, or reception into the Episcopal church?

Here's your chance! Bishop Jos will be visiting Trinity in late October, so that's this year's opportunity for confirmation, reception, or reaffirmation of faith. In preparation for his visit, we're offering an eight-week class for those who want to commit themselves to Episcopal faith as well as those—both new congregants and more seasoned ones!—who simply want to learn more about it.

We'll meet weekly from late August through early October, and we'd be delighted to have you join us. Questions? Talk to Rev. Haydie.

Looking Ahead

Mark your calendars now for "the-day-the-choir-comes-back": Rally Day, the beginning of our fall season together. Join us on September 11th for a Eucharistic liturgy taken from the New Zealand Prayer Book and a special coffee hour.

And on October 23, Bishop Jos will be visiting us for the first time!

Back-to School Blessings... and Ice Cream!

Mark your calendars now for Back-to-School blessings on August 21, followed by an ice-cream social in the courtyard at coffee hour. Student or teacher? Bring any school supplies you'd like to have blessed for the new school year—though ECW will have a few here for you, too!

Episcopal Church Women (ECW) did not meet in July. Our next meeting will be a Pot Luck on August 20th at 11:00 in the Parish Hall. Please bring your favorite pot luck food to share. Drinks will be provided. Our August project is to provide school supplies for a variety of students & teachers who will be going back to school soon. These include elementary school, middle school, high school, college students, teachers & professors. Please start collecting supplies during the back-to-school sales. You know what K-12 students like to take the first day of school. College students can always use pens and paper. Teachers may appreciate a tea bag & energy bar. We will fill bags with a few age appropriate supplies, so everyone going back to school has something to be blessed August 21st during Blessing of the Back-Packs.

Rev. Diane always needs plain Chapsticks, greeting cards with envelopes, and composition notebooks (plain black & white covers with no spiral binding) for PWCC. Angela Young needs men and women's socks at the hospital for needy patients for when they are released as most come in without socks.

All women of the church, ages 16 and up are members of ECW and welcome to attend.

Trinity Reads

This summer and early fall, Trinity's book group is reading Rachel Held Evans' Wholehearted Faith.

We meet in the Parish Hall on (mostly) alternate Wednesdays. Some participants are in person, and others are on Zoom. Right now, we're reading about two chapters each meeting.

Our first August meeting will be on August 3 at 7pm. You're very welcome to join us...or just to read along!

Just a reminder—Trinity is live streaming our worship services on our YouTube channel on Sundays at 10:00 a.m. You can find our services here: <https://youtube.com/channel/UCjioEcmm7hjKGHqHDpQeOHQ>.

The bulletin for each service will be available on Trinity's website (trinitypocatello.org) on the Friday afternoon before the service under the "Worship" tab.

Pocatello Women's Correctional Center (PWCC) Ministry Update

The last several months have been a busy time for Trinity's outreach ministry to PWCC. An Idaho Department of Correction training for volunteers was hosted by Trinity earlier last month in the Parish Hall with about thirty people in attendance from various faiths and community organizations. The three-hour presentation from 5 to 8 pm went by quickly and the healthy snacks were a hit.

Zoom and Microsoft Teams have allowed us to safely expand our services to the residents at PWCC. Eucharist Services, book study (Anne Lamott's HELP, THANKS, WOW The Three Essential Prayers), Courage for Life discipleship program and one on one clergy counseling are all being offered on various days via technology. The Story Link Program requires in-person presence at PWCC due to the audio recording and soon to be visual recording of the residents reading to their children.

A proposal for a grant to the Idaho Episcopal Foundation is also underway for a need at PWCC, but more about that next month.

Last but not least, thank you to all for the donations of greeting cards, black composition books and basic chap-sticks. This is an on-going need at PWCC and is greatly appreciated.

Puzzle!

Search for and circle all the bold words from Psalm 18:2, which reminds us where we find our strength.

The LORD is MY ROCK, my FORTRESS and my DELIVERER; my GOD is my rock, in whom I TAKE REFUGE. HE is my SHIELD and the HORN of my SALVATION, my STRONGHOLD.

New Vestry Member

The Vestry is happy to welcome a new member, Susan Goslee. Susan will fill the vacancy created by McKenna Grace's resignation for the rest of this year. She's also agreed to serve as Clerk of the Vestry, and we're very grateful!

The Water of life

Christ is like a river that is continually flowing. There are always fresh supplies of water coming from the fountainhead, so that a man may live by it and be supplied with water all his life. So Christ is an ever-flowing fountain; he is continually supplying his people, and the fountain is not spent. They who live upon Christ may have fresh supplies from him for all eternity; they may have an increase of blessedness that is new [and] never will come to an end.

—Jonathan Edwards

MBT Needs

My Brothers' Table could use cans of proteins and vegetables for the take home bags on Sunday. If you can help by bringing in a case of chili, beefaroni, or vegetables it would be greatly appreciated.
