Weaving God's Unfinished Tapestry

January 2022

Dear Sisters and Brothers of Trinity Episcopal Church in Pocatello,

It is my pleasure to announce to you that I have appointed The Rev. Haydie LeCorbeiller to be Trinity's half-time Priest-in-Charge, beginning on January 1, 2022.

Your Parish Vestry has completed a Letter of Agreement that provides for Pastor Haydie's presence two Sundays a month (2nd and 4th), as well as obligations for parish organization and pastoral needs. The Letter of Agreement is attached* for your information and support. Further details may come from the Vestry and/or Pastor Haydie as will be helpful.

Pastor Haydie's first Sunday as Priest-in-Charge at Trinity will be January 9, 2022.

With prayers for each and all of you as you step into this new journey, I am

Your brother in Christ,

+Brian
The Rt. Rev. Brian Thom
XIII Idaho

* The Letter of Agreement is available in the church office, on the bulletin board in the Parish Hall as well as on Trinity's website.

I write my monthly letters at the end of each month, so there's always a question in my mind as to whether I'm summarizing a month of parish history, or previewing a month of the future. On Christmas Eve, 2021, as I write this letter, it seems appropriate to do little of each.

I'll start with the preview. January begins with the last five of Christmas's twelve days, followed immediately by Epiphany. The Church year is a month underway, but the calendar year is just starting. We put away our decorations, we remove the greenery from the church, we go back to school and our other workaday routines. Our mornings are dark, but we know longer days are not too far away. Remember also, January is when we hold our annual meeting at Trinity. We're hoping to meet in person, but health and safety issues are worrisome, so we'll keep you posted if we decide to go online.

Now here's the historical review. 2021 was another challenging year for individuals and institutions. The pandemic stayed in the forefront, taking us on a rollercoaster of news from bad to better and back and forth again. Political divisions hold the headlines, politeness and civility seem quaintly outdated, and "normal" seems like a faint and fantastical memory. In our parish, we sadly bade farewell to Vicki, Betty, JoAn, Peggy and Tony.

For all of its troubles, 2021 had plenty of bright moments. For our church, chief among these is the culmination of one transition process, and the beginning of the next. Yes, albeit on a part-time basis, our little flock now has a pastor. Let's welcome The Rev. Haydie LeCorbeiller as our new Priest-in-Charge, and embrace the next transition as we move into the future together. Every day is a new adventure for each of us, individually and collectively, and I pray that we'll all continue to stay safe, to stay happy, and to be blessed.

In peace and brotherhood,

Tom

Good News for 2022! Episcopal Church Women (ECW) plans to meet on January 15 at 11:00 in the Parish Hall. Please wear masks and social distance sitting at the long tables. Those who want a Secret Sister can choose one at the meeting.

We need to discuss how the new coffee hour will look when Vestry decides it can start up again. That may be some time away, but we have to be ready when the heads-up comes. If you have input and cannot attend the meeting, please contact Miffy or Rita so your ideas on coffee hour can be discussed.

Please bring your Bible. The Lectionary this year follows the Book of Luke, so we will read and discuss the first several chapters of Luke. All women of the church, ages 16 and up are members of ECW and welcome to attend. Happy New Year!

From Rev. Haydie

Dear Trinity family,

I am so grateful that we're going to be walking this next stretch of road together. I've loved this congregation since I first visited Pocatello in the fall of 1981, and I'm delighted to serve as Trinity's new Priest-in-Charge. (That title, if you're wondering, comes from the rules (the "canons") of the Episcopal Church. It's not a delusion of grandeur on my part.)

There are lots of ways of being a priest, and no one job embodies all of them. In this case, our bishop and vestry have asked me to focus on Trinity's spiritual needs: to lead worship, provide pastoral care, and work with lay leadership as we move into a changing future. To join you in witnessing to God's love and God's presence, much as the shepherds did on that first Christmas night.

Yet one of my former teachers would insist that I'm the sheepdog here, not the shepherd. Jesus is our true shepherd. It's Jesus who maps our journey, who leads us and cares for us. The sheepdog follows the shepherd and looks after the sheep. She keeps the sheep together. She keeps them headed in the shepherd's path, whatever its challenges. And she stays close to those who are struggling.

So what's that going to look like? As Trinity's half-time sheepdog, some of the things I'll be doing will include:

- preaching and presiding on two Sundays a month; at around half of Trinity's special services (ex, Christmas, Ash Wednesday); and at marriages and funerals when possible.
- Holding regular office hours from 10-2 on Mondays and Fridays for pastoral care, planning, and administrative issues.
- Meeting with parishioners at other times when those office hours don't work for them.
- Making pastoral visits, being available in emergency situations, and supporting Trinity's pastoral care team.
- Working with Father Don to provide Christian formation opportunities like confirmation class and adult education series.
- Working with Trinity's lay leaders to manage the affairs of the parish and to discern new opportunities for Christian growth and service
- Making connections with other congregations in Pocatello and the diocese.

We'll have a new bishop next summer, and Covid cases are climbing again nationally. There's a lot we don't know about the year ahead. But we do know that we're going to be walking in God's Way together, following our shepherd. I'm very excited about these next steps!
