Weaving God's Unfinished Tapestry

From Rev. Haydie

Are we there yet? We spent forty days waiting for Easter. We've spent what feels like 400 days waiting for spring. We've spent much longer waiting for God's dream of justice and peace to blossom around us. Like kids on a car ride, we may feel we've waited long enough. We're ready for the daffodils to come up, for hunger and hatred to go away.

We know the disciples felt the same way. Even after Easter. They'd seen a miracle greater than any they'd ever imagined, but the Romans were still in control. The tiny Christian community was still under attack. When is this going to change? they ask Jesus. Is now the time?

In these days and weeks after Easter, Jesus teaches them—and us—that now is the time. It's time to watch for Jesus himself, moving among us. It's time to watch for courage, and renewal, and faith. It's time for us to see what God is doing in the world. To celebrate it. And to become part of making it happen. We don't need to wait!

Easter blessings,

Haydie+

Bishop's Visit on Mother's Day

Trinity will welcome Idaho Bishop Jos Tharakan to our 10:00 am service on Sunday, May 14. In this service of Holy Eucharist and Healing, Bishop Jos will be anointing those who come forward for healing as well as preaching and celebrating Eucharist. Both the Trinity and the Alleluia choirs will be with us for this joyful service....and of course there will be a special coffee hour!

Stewardship Update

As of April 27, Trinity had received

- $42,292 (48%) of its 2023 pledge income.
- $3,931.30 (79%) of its anticipated 2023 open plate income.

It's your generosity that makes our ministries possible. Thank you!

Miffy's Message

Here is something for you to contemplate today:

A poem by Angie Weiland-Crosby

During the wild uncertainty
of a frightened land,
Spring reached out her
mystical hand;
Willing to give us hope.

It is time for us make ready for summer and a visit from Bishop Jos on May 14. Yes, that is Mother's Day also! This was a very hard winter and our yards need extra care this spring. That includes all the areas around Trinity. ECW is meeting on May 13th to plant some flowers, but we need more than that. There is a lot of preparation to be done, so Trinity doesn't look shabby this summer. Please look around before and after church and see what you can do to once again make Trinity a place of beauty in Old Town Pocatello. Join us the morning of May 13th to give our beloved Trinity a sprucing up.

Meet Our New Musicians

We are so happy to welcome Gabriel Lowman to Trinity as our new keyboardist. Gabriel comes to us with a cornucopia of musical skills and experience. He's looking forward to adding organ skills to that bounty!

We're also excited to have Mavity Shaw singing with Trinity Choir as the new soprano section leader. Mavity is currently studying at ISU and we're looking forward to many amazing musical moments with her!

Calling Bread Bakers

Trinity has brought back the common cup as an option at communion, and now it's time to think about communion bread. There are typically 2-3 times a month when we'd need the bread, and we provide the recipe. It does need to be followed exactly in order to avoid crumbs. If you'd like to be part of Trinity's Bread Guild, please let Rev. Haydie know.

Episcopal Church Women

Episcopal Church Women (ECW) met Saturday, April 8 at 11:00 AM in the parish hall. We began with Bible reading, Matthew 27: 57-66 which was the Gospel for Holy Saturday. The project for the day was to make 13 Easter bags for the young people who would attend church on Easter morning. Thanks to all who provided bags, tissue paper, candy and trinkets. The bags were a big success, and we had just enough to provide Easter treats for every young person who was at church Easter Sunday.

We are delighted to announce a Rummage Sale at Trinity June 9 & 10th in the parish hall. Start collecting your best rummage as you do spring cleaning. Items can be brought to the parish hall the week of June 5th. Our Gathering Place will be out for summer vacation, so the space is ours to clutter that week. We also could use volunteers to help Wendy Rowe sort, display and work the sale. If you can help please let Miffy or Marky know. They will pass the list on to Wendy.

Our next meeting will be the second Saturday in May, which is May 13th, at 11:00 AM in the parish hall. We will use this day to plant flowers and get ready for a visit the next day from Bishop Jos. All women of the church, ages 16 and up are members of ECW and welcome to attend.

PWCC Ministry Update

We just completed the eight week Courage for My Life Program in April and are scheduled for another series of the same program in July. A four week study of prayer will begin May 7th on Sundays. The StoryLink program also continues, so Trinity's outreach at the Pocatello Women's Correctional Center (PWCC) continues to expand.

Black composition books, birthday and blank greeting cards, plain chapsticks and shower poofs are still on the list of needs so any help with those items would be greatly appreciated. Thank you for your continued help with this ministry of Trinity's.

The Rev. Diane Paulson

Last month at Trinity

April began with a palm folding party in the Parish Hall, one day before the Alleluia Choir joined us for Palm Sunday. Holy week continued with (optional!) footwashing on Maundy Thursday and the flowering of the cross on Easter morning. Two weeks later, we got to celebrate the Rev. Don and Diane Paulson's 25 years of ordained ministry among us.

Marky will be on vacation Friday, May 19 through Wednesday, May 24. The voicemail and email will be checked regularly.

Rummage Sale

Plan on Friday and Saturday, June 9-10, for our Rummage Sale. Donated items can be brought to the Parish Hall beginning Monday, June 5.

I have a vision of the Holy Spirit leaning against a tree, or perhaps sinking into her favorite chair, and feeling both exhausted and exhilarated after the day of Pentecost. Rushing wind, fire, tongues, and the many gifts of the Spirit that blast into the world on that day must take a lot of energy, even for God. Much as God the Creator rested on the Seventh Day, I imagine the Holy Spirit must need a bit of a breather after her big day.

This is an appropriate feeling as we look onto the Summer. Half of the year is over, and schools, families, and rectors might be considering or looking forward to Summer plans for rest. We need this – time off to recharge and time to pursue our hobbies and personal interests. A couple of days to sleep in, the chance to look at a different landscape, a trip out of our comfort zone give us the opportunity for new perspectives, new ideas, new approaches.

Rest is so important, that we should require it or at the least remind ourselves to take advantage of it when we can. We are called to offer our gifts to our churches, communities, and families and the gifts we offer will be strengthened if we have had a chance to get new perspective and energy and ideas. Find the ways this Pentecost season to rest up for the challenges that the fall will bring. | tens.org

Questions for Reflection:

What are the ways that you find to rest and recharge?

What about ministry gives you energy or joy?
