

The Call

The printed voice of Trinity Episcopal Church
Weaving God's Unfinished Tapestry

From Rev. Haydie

"My Lord God, I have no idea where I am going. I do not see the road ahead of me. I cannot know for certain where it will end. Nor do I really know myself, and the fact that I think I am following your will does not mean that I am actually doing so."

I've loved this prayer by Thomas Merton for many years, but its opening words have never seemed truer to me than they do right now. Like so many of us, I don't know where we're going... nor am I at all sure how to respond to this historical moment.

But here's what I do know: We are made in the image of God, every one of us. We are called to look for God in one another. We are called to love and serve God in one another. And "we are called," writes Idaho's Bishop Jos Tharakan, "to be a beacon of light. As followers of Christ, we are reminded of the biblical command to welcome the stranger and care for the most vulnerable among us, keeping aside political affiliations and affinities."

The light is Christ's, not our own. Remembering that Jesus spent much of his ministry challenging boundaries between "us" and "them," we are called to lift those beacons—our own little, flickering flames—high enough for their light to spill across all the barriers that separate us. High enough to recognize Jesus's love for the people we disagree with, the people we're afraid of, the people we may sometimes forget or dismiss or despise. High enough to help us glimpse the next right steps we can take.

Maybe the smallness of our flames is its own blessing. Maybe it reminds us how much we need all our lights to live out God's dream of justice and mercy. And maybe the shadows around them are our reminder to "walk humbly" in Jesus's footsteps. May we always follow him in loving those who need us most.

Miffy's Message

We held our Annual Meeting after church on January 26, 2025. A lovely lunch was hosted by Diana and Geoffrey Friedley with support from Vestry and Sue Frasure. For those who could not attend, the booklet for the meeting can be obtained in the office so they can see the budget and full written reports. Senior Warden, Miffy Lane, gave the opening prayer. Susan Goslee served as clerk. Susanne Forrest and Miffy Lane were tellers. Here are some highlights:

- Diane Nelson presented a balanced 2025 budget. We met our pledge drive goal for 2025 and want to thank all those who give generously of their time, talent and treasure.
- Miffy Lane will continue as Senior Warden. Vestry members are Monica Eckert (Junior Warden), Susan Goslee (clerk), Angela Young, Diane Nelson, Timothy Cole, and Ruta Casabianca. New members are Kathy Venemon and Rosa Hill-Alford. We want to thank our retiring members Diane Bilyeu and Susanne Forrest who have faithfully served three years.
- Planned Giving Committee members are Tom Eckert and Diane Nelson plus newly elected members Scott Bauman, Ruta Casabianca and Susanne Forrest. We give a big thank you to Sue Frasure and Rita Haggardt who are retiring from the committee.
- Our Convention delegate for 2025 is Angela Young. Our alternate is Timothy Cole. The Convention this year will be hosted by Good Shepherd Episcopal Church at Fort Hall and held at the Casino.

Father Don gave the closing prayer.

Episcopal Church Weavers

Episcopal Church Weavers (ECW) met on Saturday, January 25 to plan activities for the next few months. Miffy Lane gave the ECW annual report. We had a very successful year supporting activities for Trinity and the Diocese of Idaho Convention. Our fundraising has placed us in a good position to assist with financial needs as they arise.

Kathleen Kangas spoke on Mid-term Care Bags for spring Semester. We agreed to meet on Monday, March 3rd, to fill the bags. We will need bakers to bring their cookies bagged with two cookies each. Cookies may be brought before church on March 2nd or on March 3rd by 11:00. A sign-up sheet for bakers, bag fillers, and deliverers will be available on mid-February. Deliveries will begin after bags are filled on March 3rd.

Kathleen shared with us her plans to host a champagne brunch after church on March 2nd to celebrate Bob and Kathleen's 25th wedding anniversary. ECW with help with set up, clean up and pouring mimosas for this happy event. Sign-up sheets will be available in mid-February.

Rev. Diane thanked us for our contribution to provide incentives for women who serve in the Edify Program at PWCC.

Since everyone at Trinity is a member of ECW we no longer have a Parish Life Committee. We are planning a Pot Luck/ Game Night on February 12 at 6:00 in the Parish Hall. Bring a food item to share and be prepared to enjoy an evening among friends. Watch for sign-up sheets if you can help with set up or clean up.

The Refuge warming shelter at the Congregational Church is always in need of dinners for 30 people. There is a pamphlet in the parish hall with information. Sign up for providing a dinner is done on-line. Dinners will be needed until spring when the winter cold has subsided.

The Salvation Army has announced that they have opened a day warming shelter. They are asking for warm clothing and blankets. Keep in mind many of our homeless are men.

The next meeting of ECW will be February 15th at 11:00 in the parish hall. We will plan for spring events and learn how wasp spray may be used for our safety at church gatherings. Everyone is welcome.

Midterm Care Packages

Order now! The deadline to purchase Midterm Care Packages is Friday, Feb. 28. For $20, you can send a package filled with treats, study aids, games, and most importantly, love. If you are giving money to support the project, allowing us to give the packages to deserving students identified by ISU advisors, simply give your donations to the office marked for "Midterm." As always, you can donate in cash, check or online at the Parish website. If you want your gift delivered to a specific student, staff or faculty member, please fill out the online order form giving us contact information for the recipient. You can also promote the project by posting/distributing advertising flyers or by spreading the word on your social media.

Stewardship Update

As part of our 2025 budget year, by January 31 Trinity had received

- $8,360.15 of its 2025 pledge income.
- $518.53 of its anticipated 2025 open plate income.

Thank you!

Anniversary Invitation

All Trinity family and friends are cordially invited to brunch to celebrate the 25th Wedding Anniversary of Robert Guyon & Kathleen Kangas, in the Parish Hall immediately following the service on Sunday, March 2. Trinity has been central to our love story, and nothing could be better than to share our joy with you.

Trinity Reads

Our current book is Richard Rohr's Things Hidden: Scripture as Spirituality. On Tuesday, February 18, we'll discuss chapters 3-6. On Tuesday, March 11, we'll discuss chapters 7-10.

Keep watch, dear Lord, with those who work, or watch, or weep this night, and give your angels charge over those who sleep. Tend the sick, Lord Christ: give rest to the weary, bless the dying, soothe the suffering, pity the afflicted, shield the joyous; and all for your love's sake. Amen.

- Book of Common Prayer, p. 134

Looking Ahead

- Kathleen and Bob's anniversary reception (and this month's potluck) will serve as our pre-Lenten festivities, so we won't hold a pancake supper this year. We will, however gather for Ash Wednesday worship on March 5 at 7pm.
- During Lent, we'll also share a biweekly series of soup-and-bread suppers and sung compline. More information will be in March's Call, but mark your calendars now for the first one on March 12 at 6pm.
- Our Alleluia Choir will sing at the March 15th opening concert for the Feeding the 5,000 Families food drive. Join us at Central Christian Church to hear them!
