

What and Who is a “Saint”?

Col 3:10 - And have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him:

Some definitions:

Easton's Bible Dictionary: One separated from the world and consecrated to God; one holy by profession and by covenant; a believer in Christ

Unger's Bible Dictionary: Positionally every NT believer; experientially – a person eminent for piety and virtue: a consecrated person

Strong's definition: sacred – ceremonially or morally

Note: These definitions from those that apparently understand nothing of the need to rightly divide the Scriptures.

Who are “saints” named so in the Bible?

Aaron: an individually named “saint”:

Psa 106:16 - They envied Moses also in the camp, and
Aaron the saint of the LORD.

(Note: speaking of disobedient Israel)

An angel named individually as a “saint” (singular):

Dan 8:13-16 - Then I heard one saint speaking, and another saint said unto that certain saint which spake, How long shall be the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, and the transgression of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot? And he said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred days; then shall the sanctuary be cleansed. And it came to pass, when I, even I Daniel, had seen the vision, and sought for the meaning, then, behold, there stood before me as the appearance of a man. And I heard a man's voice between the banks of Ulai, which called, and said, Gabriel, make this man to understand the vision.

Paul to the Philippians uses the singular form of the word “saint” once:

Phl 4:21 - Salute every saint in Christ Jesus. The brethren which are with me greet you.

Where else in the Bible are “saints” identified?

Thou art my Lord: my goodness extendeth not to thee;
But to the saints that are in the earth, and to the excellent, in whom is all my delight.

On earth the word “saints” is tied to the believing people of Israel throughout the OT:

Psa 132:9 - Let thy priests be clothed with righteousness; and let thy saints shout for joy.

Psa 148:14 - He also exalteth the horn of his people, the praise of all his saints; even of the children of Israel, a people near unto him. Praise ye the LORD.

The General Epistles:

But first...a little recap:

Where in the Bible is the word “saints” first mentioned?

Deu 33:1-3 - And this is the blessing, wherewith Moses the man of God blessed the children of Israel before his death. And he said, The LORD came from Sinai, and rose up from Seir unto them; he shined forth from mount Paran, and he came with ten thousands of saints: from his right hand went a fiery law for them. Yea, he loved the people; all his saints are in thy hand: and they sat down at thy feet; every one shall receive of thy words.

What is the significance of this first mention of the word “saints”?

“Rules of Interpretation” by Dr. David L. Cooper Th. M., Ph. D., Litt. D. (1886-1965)

The fourth rule of interpretation is THE LAW OF FIRST MENTION.

The meaning of the fourth rule:

The Law of First Mention may be said to be the principle that requires one to go to that portion of the Scriptures where a doctrine is mentioned for the first time and to study the first occurrence of the same in order to get the fundamental inherent meaning of that doctrine.

When this law is applied the simple precedes the complex.

Deu 33:1-3 - And this is the blessing, wherewith Moses the man of God blessed the children of Israel before his death. And he said, The LORD came from Sinai, and rose up from Seir unto them; he shined forth from mount Paran, and he came with ten thousands of saints: from his right hand went a fiery law for them. Yea, he loved the people; all his saints are in thy hand: and they sat down at thy feet; every one shall receive of thy words.

Jude 1:14-15 - And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints, To execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him.

Now...on to the General, rather Hebraic Epistles:

Heb 13:24 - Salute all them that have the rule over you, and all the saints. They of Italy salute you.

Jude 1:3 - Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.

Rev 13:7- And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations.

Rev 13:10 - He that leadeth into captivity shall go into captivity: he that killeth with the sword must be killed with the sword. Here is the patience and the faith of the saints.

Rev 14:12 - Here is the patience of the saints: here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus.

Rev 15:3 - And they sing the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints.

Rev 16:6 - For they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and thou hast given them blood to drink; for they are worthy.

Rev 17:6 - And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration.

Rev 18:24 - And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth.

Rev 19:8 - And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints.

Rev 20:9 - And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city: and fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them.

Some final thoughts:

1. If the word “saint” can refer to any believer in Christ, how would one know the audience being addressed?
2. Why, after the High Calling of God, will there be “saints” yet on the earth that will have to go through the Great Tribulation?
3. Reformed Protestant, Orthodox, Apostolic and the Catholic churches maintain that “saints” are of those that believe in Christ.
  - a. All these religions maintain that Christians WILL go through the Great Tribulation as indicated by use of the word “SAINTS” in the Revelation, and the Gospels, etc.
  - b. So...what’s the difference for those that rightly divide?
  - c. Those religions teach...Christians and Saints will be tested and judged in their service to God.
  - d. But NOT so the Body of Christ.

Answer:

The specific words of the King James Bible are our instructive authority.

What then is a “saint”?

One that is wholly separated and called to the service of God.

Who then is a “saint”?

The holy angels, and those of believing Israel.

The “What” and “Who” in the Body of Christ (Eph 5:30) -

The “What”:

Col 1:27 – to whom God would make known WHAT is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory

Eph 1:13 – sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise

Eph 1:14 – the purchased possession

Eph 1:14 – the praise of His glory

The “Who”

Eph 1:13 – those WHO also trusted in Christ “after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation”.

English: the use of commas in writing a list -

First example:

“I greeted Betty Sue and Marion in my email.”

How many people were greeted?

Second example:

“I greeted Betty, Sue, and Marion in my email.”

How many people were greeted?

Now, consider Ephesians 1:1

Eph 1:1 - Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, to the saints which are at Ephesus, and to the faithful in Christ Jesus:

Using the rule of English we just exemplified –

- How many groups are being greeted by Paul in this verse?
- What and who is the first group?
- What and who is the second group?

Now, we are ready to continue our study in the Epistle of Paul to the Ephesians!
