Life Together

Greetings,

When I was a child, May was one of my favorite months of the year. There were the usual reasons of course: budding trees – shrubs – and flowers – the end of the school year and summer vacation was close – which meant warm weather and staying outside. And, I've always been partial to Memorial Day.

As life goes on, things change. I still enjoy the warmer weather and outdoor activities – and beauty of the unfolding variety of flowers through spring and summer. But these joys are mixed with sorrow – grief – and the separation that comes as we grow and move apart. Friends and family get sick – move away – or pass away – and there's a void in our lives.

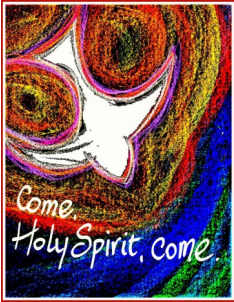

None of this is unique to me – this is what life is like – this is how our lives unfold – individually and as members of a community of faith. In the past months I've had the joy of meeting new people – presiding at several funerals – the wonder of baptizing a young child – and the privilege of visiting people at home – at the hospital – and in other health care facilities. During this time I have talked with several people about how amazing prayer can be. I remember back to my father's last days – and recall that I felt my family was being firmly supported on a cloud of prayer. That sounds like an oxymoron – how can a cloud be a secure foundation? Yet it was – and those in our faith community who are experiencing the support of family – church family – and friends through prayer agree that although it seems as though it must be insubstantial – this cloud of prayer is actually felt as tangible, firm support, surrounding, enfolding, and carrying them securely through this time. I think of the comfort of the 23rd psalm: “The Lord is my shepherd. He makes me lie down in green pastures and leads me beside still waters; and He also comforts me and guides me securely through the valleys of dark shadows.” I also turn to Psalm 27: “The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom (or what!) shall I fear? Wait for the Lord; be strong, and let your heart take courage; wait for the Lord!”

Through all the joys and sorrows – the green pastures and dark valleys in our lives – we are surrounded, enfolding, comforted, and cared for by Jesus – and through Him we share love, comfort, and faith with one another. I can wait for the Lord because of my faith. I can try to be strong and let my heart take courage because of the love, prayers, and support of all of you. That is what we do for one another as a family of faith. And the loving arms of our Good Shepherd and the cloud of prayer support us and carry us through.

As we move into May, let's celebrate on Mother's Day and Memorial Day. Let's share our joy! And may we share our prayers for those in our church family who are dealing with health and other concerns in their lives. May we love and pray for one another – sharing our joys and celebrations – sorrows and concerns – by sharing our prayers. We can trust that in all of this – we are supported, empowered, loved, and cared for by our Good Shepherd – and held securely on that cloud of prayer. Peace,

Craig

SCHOOL SUPPLY MINISTRY

Last year, the combined efforts of FPC Alvin, our Clothing Outlet, Alvin Family Community in Schools, and the local YMCA combined to provide backpacks and school supplies to almost 1,600 students. By intentionally choosing to collaborate with one another, we served more and greatly reduced the chance for people to take advantage. The one day “fair” at Grace Ward Harby Junior High was a time of joy, commitment, love, and mission. Recipients of school supplies and volunteers alike were part of a life-changing experience.

Once again, we’re joining forces to help families in need with the challenge of providing school supplies for their children, The School Supply Fair will be held, Saturday, August 11 at Harby Junior High – what a fitting honor for the lady from this church who started it all.!

We will need your help prior to August 11, and we’ll have updates in subsequent newsletters. The work is not too strenuous and we do have a lot of fun.

“Building a Life of Faith God, from youth you have taught me.”

Psalm 71:17

THE PENTECOST OFFERING -- BUILDING A LIFE OF FAITH

The Pentecost Offering unites us in a church wide effort to support young people in Christ and inspire them to share their faith, ideas, and unique gifts with the church and the world.

BY GIVING TO THE PENTECOST OFFERING

you're supporting ministries that unite young people and inspire them to share their faith in Christ.

Each year on Pentecost Sunday, we celebrate the gift of the Holy Spirit and the birthday of the church. The Holy Spirit remains with us still, connecting us with the church of the past, continuing to inspire the church of today, and pointing us to the church of the future.

Studies show that a foundation of faith established during childhood through young adulthood, helps ensure lifelong faith and service. Psalm 71 testifies to this same truth. Verse 17 says "O God, from my youth you have taught me, and I still proclaim your wondrous deeds." The patterns and lessons established during these formative years continue to bear fruit throughout a person's life.

These lessons might be taught through a congregation's commitment to Educate a Child, Transform the World in ministries that shape a child's academic achievement, setting them on a path toward a stable future. They might be taught through one of the youth events sponsored by Ministries with Youth at the national church that brings together young people from all over the country to share their experiences of faith with one another, and learn how their faith can help them address challenges all over the world. Or our young adults may be guided through a year of intentional service where they discern God's call upon their lives by our Young Adult Volunteer Program.

And there is more -- Presbyterian congregations are finding new ways to minister to children at-risk in their own communities. General Assembly programs are advocating for children and developing youth and young adult leaders.

By giving to the Pentecost Offering, one of the four Special Offerings of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), we are nurturing the faith of those who are the church to come; children, youth, and young adults. We invite your congregation to join with the worldwide church in building for our future, in building individual lives of faith. Won't you join us? If we all do a little, it adds up to a lot.

First Presbyterian always has plenty of places and opportunities to serve either within our own church family or the community.

Please contact a Session member or Pastor Craig if you have some time to help in the following areas:

Dear friends,

Seems that sometimes, we get so caught up in the busyness of life that we fail to stop and give thanks to folks who are doing great and wonderful things here at FPC Alvin. Sometimes, I feel like Larry the Cable Guy and I just want to “Git-R-Done!”

Please bear with me as I stop to give thanks to Adrienne and Scott Thomas for their work with our new sound system and website; to Brandi Bowers and Gina Ruskey for their work with our pictorial directory; to Gina Ruskey for coordinating with CGI as they prepare to video various aspects of our church to be presented on the City of Alvin and church websites; to the Session for staying the course on the manse remodel (which is completed); to Chris Lo for coordinating efforts to repair our church organ, and the folks who donated to this cause; to Building and Grounds, Kim and Paul Froberg and others for sprucing up our church campus; and to Lisa McCalla for her dedication to improving the Clothing Outlet. Thank you all so much. It is a pleasure to serve alongside all of you.

Confirmation Class

Confirmation is a time for students to learn about the Christian faith and explore what it means to live as a follower of Jesus Christ. At the completion of the class and in front of the church, students have the opportunity to either confirm their baptism or be baptized. They also have the opportunity to become a member of the church.

Parents of 8th graders and higher – If your child is interested in participating in the confirmation process, please contact Pastor Craig or Barbara Bennett (281-703-0445, tebeb@sbcglobal.net).
