Raffle Tickets may be purchased by Members in Good Standing. Members in Good Standing are those new or renewed for 2023 that have their membership/leagues, paid in full. Renewed members must have their 8 work hours completed for 2022 or have paid the workhour shortfall.

- You will be allowed to harvest as many birds as you have tags for.
- Hunt weeks run from daybreak Wednesday to Tuesday at close of season.
- For the youth hunt week, blinds may be set on Friday the 14th but must be removed the evening of the 16th.
- Outside of the youth season, all blinds must be removed on Tuesday so next week's hunters can come in on Wednesday morning.
- Maximum of 1 blind per entrant.
- Weeks C, D, E & F are restricted to the back NW corner field of the property only! Spring work day and summer league will be active.
- If you win consecutive weeks, your blind may remain in place for the following week.
- $50 fine per day for failure to remove blinds on time.
- Hunters not abiding by the rules of this raffle hunt will be put on suspension and up for review by the board of PBA.
- Communication between hunters will be key during this hunt.
- Parking arrangements must be agreed upon by both parties, otherwise both parties must park in the parking lot.
- Final winners will be posted online and emailed to the membership.
