Note:

- by signing this document, you have agreed to the program as announced by the An-Nur academy and to the fees associated with it.
- The health disclaimer form – available at An-Nur Academy office - must be filled for every child. It is the parent's responsibility to fill it out and disclose all necessary information about his child's health and/or anything else that the academy needs to know, using that form.
- the parent filling this application accepts the An-Nur academy policies available at the An-Nur Academy online registration form such as: the right to take pictures of the students and post them on our website – for non-commercial purposes; the need to have a device that is equipped with a camera; following the covid-19 safety regulations.
- The parents are responsible for providing the transportation for the students on Saturday or Sunday.
- the program will involve indoor and outdoor activities and Annur Academy will do its best and within its limits to make these activities safe and secure. By signing this document the parent accepts the limited responsibility offered by An-nur academy and agrees to not hold An-Nur Foundation accountable for any issue that might happen while trying to achieve that goal. If you have any concerns, you can waive all activities by writing a waiver letter to the An-nur Academy principle.
