AMERICAN LEGION HISTORY AUGUST

1921: The Legion's efforts result in the creation of the U.S. Veterans Bureau, forerunner of the Veterans Administration.

1941: The U.S. Navy commissions the USS American Legion, which later serves in World War II, including operations connected to Guadalcanal.

1946: The first American Legion Boys Forum of National Government, later renamed American Legion Boys Nation, is held at American University in Washington, D.C.

2017: The Harry W. Colmery Veterans Educational Assistance Act, known as the Forever GI Bill, is signed into law and removes time limits for many veterans using GI Bill benefits.

2017: Denise H. Rohan of Wisconsin is elected national commander, becoming the first woman to lead The American Legion.
