AMERICAN LEGION HISTORY SEPTEMBER

1919: Congress grants The American Legion its federal charter on Sept. 16.

1979: National POW/MIA Recognition Day, long promoted by The American Legion, is established for the third Friday in September.

1997: The American Legion presents its first National Law Enforcement Officer of the Year Award at the National Convention in Orlando.

2000: The Legion presents the first Spirit of Service Awards, honoring active-duty servicemembers for off-duty volunteer service.

2001: After the Sept. 11 attacks, The American Legion reactivates the Family Support Network to assist military families.

POST REOPENS ON SUNDAYS ON 9/13
