AMERICAN LEGION HISTORY

January 1919
Veterans returning from World War I continued organizing efforts that would soon form The American Legion.

Foundation Month
January reflects the early momentum that led to the Legion's formal founding later in 1919.

Purpose and Planning
From the beginning, January became a time to set direction, organize leadership, and prepare for a year of service.

Legacy of Action
The Legion's core mission, service to Veterans, communities, and country, took shape during these earliest months.
