

About Casey Family Programs

Casey Family Programs is the nation's largest operating foundation focused on safely reducing the need for foster care and building Communities of Hope for children and families across America. Our mission is to provide and improve — and ultimately prevent the need for — foster care.

We are committed to 2020: Building Communities of Hope \(/2020-building-communities-of-hope/\), a nationwide effort to improve the safety and success of children and their families. We work in support of a range of public, private, tribal and community partners \(/partnerships/\)to:

- Safely reduce the need for foster care 50 percent by the year 2020. We partner with child welfare systems, families, policymakers, courts and American Indian tribes to support practices and policies that safely reduce the need for foster care, increase the safety and success of children and strengthen the resilience of families.
- Demonstrate how every child can have a safe and permanent family. We provide and improve foster care and related services \(/child-and-family-services/\) to demonstrate how every child can have a safe, permanent and supportive family. Through this work, we seek to influence improvements in life outcomes, especially in the areas of education, mental health and employment.
- Support more effective investments in children and families. We contribute nonpartisan information, data and resources \(/resources/\) to help public officials make more effective investments — and reinvestments — in children and families.
- Encourage a shared vision for success. We encourage community leaders to think, plan and act collectively to improve the long-term safety and success of children and their families.

Casey Family Programs works in all 50 states, the District of Columbia and two U.S. territories and with more than a dozen tribal nations to influence long-lasting improvements to the safety and success of children, families and the communities where they live.
