

The Voice of St. Margaret's

Proud Member of the Class of 2020
Our Year Was Cut Short
But Our Dreams Were Not!
We Made History

Congratulations to the Class of 2020
From
St. Margaret's Episcopal Church Women

Jordan Young

Jordan Young is a 2020 graduate of Dayton Regional STEM High School. He studied seven years of Mandarin (Chinese) language that enabled him to study abroad in China in the summer of 2018.

Jordan completed his AP course work; he also played high school basketball and coaches youth basketball. Some of his extra curricular activities include, 2020 Jack and Jill Beautillion Member and 2020 Delta Sigma Theta Debutante Escort, unfortunately these activities were cancelled when schools closed due to the Covid-19 pandemic.

Jordan has volunteered as a counselor for; Summer Vacation Bible School, St. Margaret's Summer STEM Program and Summer Arts Program. Jordan intends to further his studies at Moorehouse College in Atlanta, Georgia.

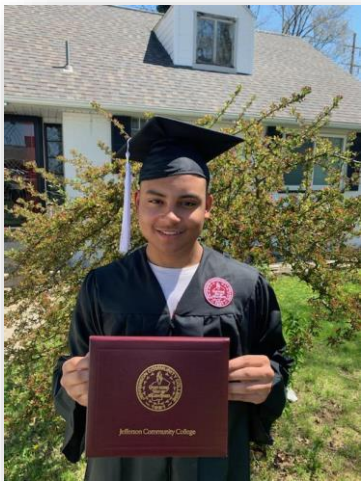

Steven and Kortni Alston are the proud parents of Jordan along with his proud aunt and uncle Fr. Ben and Stacy Speare-Hardy.

Lauren Elizabeth Stone

Lauren Elizabeth Stone graduated Cum Laude, May 1st 2020 from Alabama State University, College of Science, Mathematics & Technology , in Biology (B.Sc). This summer she is working in Watertown, New York researching aquatic invasive species. She plans to move to the south to pursue a Masters of Veterinary /Animal Science in the next year.

Nelson Stone II and Dr. Tyria Stone are the proud parents of Lauren along with her proud grand parents Nelson and Joyce Stone.

Nelson Martin Stone III

Nelson Martin Stone III graduated Cum Laude, May 15th, 2020 from Jefferson Community College with an Associates of Humanities and Social Science Degree. He is now working at the Food Bank here in Dayton. When classes resume, his desire is to resume his education at Ohio State Nelson Stone II and Dr. Tyria Stone are the proud parents of Nelson along with his proud grand parents Nelson and Joyce Stone.

Lariyah Yvonne Taylor

Lariyah Yvonne Taylor is a graduate of Monroe Senior High in Monroe, Ohio. Lariyah is proud to say that she is an “official graduate” of the “Class of Covid-19 Quarantine 2020”. Lariyah earned a 3.2 GPA in her studies, she also volunteered as a mentor for St. Margaret’s Summer Arts Camp and worked for Kroger’s and Duncan Donuts. Lariyah enjoys styling hair and plans to attend Cosmetology School in the fall.

Sean and Daphne Reed are the proud parents of Lariyah. She is the granddaughter of Fred and Kim Stovall and the great granddaughter of Jeff and Phyllis Brunson.

Marcus Thompson

Marcus Thompson is a graduate of Livingston College in Salisbury, North Carolina. Marcus earned a degree in Sports Management and finished his studies with a 3.9 GPA. Marcus was a member of the Men’s Golf Team (2018 CIAA Championship), Sports Management Club, SAAC, ENACTUS, NAAAHP and the E-Sports Club. During the summers Marcus was a volunteer mentor for St. Margaret’s Summer Arts Camp.

Michael and Maeda Thompson are the very proud parents of Marcus.

Danielle Lauren Gordon

Danielle received her Bachelor Degree in Business Administration with a major in Marketing from West Virginia University, in Morgantown, West Virginia in December, 2019. Danielle graduated Summa Cum Laude in two and one half years. Danielle also played on the Mountaineer Soccer team. She will pursue her Masters Degree at California Baptist University starting this July 2020.

Retired Navy Captain Dana R. and Rolanda Ogletree Gordon of Jacksonville, Florida along with Ronald and Laura Ogletree are the very proud parents and grandparents of Danielle.

Trenton Wise

Trenton is a graduate of Ronald Regan High School in San Antonio, Texas. Trenton will attend Texas Tech University in the fall.

Todd and Theresa Wise are the proud parents of Trenton. He is the grandson of Harry and Brenda Wise.

Robin Wise Fletcher

Robin received her Masters of Business Degree from Indiana Wesleyan University.

Randle Fletcher is the proud husband of Robin. She is the daughter of Harry and Brenda Wise.