Qualification Enrolment

You can cancel your enrolment in any Practical Financial Exams Limited qualification for a full refund of monies paid by you, within fourteen (14) calendar days from Practical Financial Exams Limited accepting your order for the services.

We accept your order once (a) we have received payment of the relevant monies due, and (b) we have e-mailed you with confirmation of your enrolment. Your refund of any monies paid by you will be processed within seven (7) days of our receipt of your notification to cancel or, if your study text has been dispatched by the time that we receive your notification to cancel, within seven (7) days of the receipt (or proof of sending) of goods.

Training and Learner Support

Study Texts

Study text will be dispatched to you within three working days of your payment clearing into our account. The service we use is Royal Mail 1st Class, and packages must be signed for. The exception is where we have not been provided with a delivery address, or we believe the delivery address to be manifestly incorrect, incomplete, or out of date.

Any description or image of our study texts is for illustrative purposes only and there may be small discrepancies in the size and colour of the book provided.

Study texts are updated annually. Previous versions are held on file by Practical Financial Exams Limited.

Exam Helpline (E-Mail)

Qualification Learners may e-mail contact@practicalfinancialexams.co.uk anytime between when their order has been accepted, and when they have passed their final assessment for the same qualification. Practical Financial Exams Limited endeavours to answer within 48 hours, although we cannot guarantee this. Practical Financial Exams Limited is under no obligation to answer Helpline e-mails received within 48 hours of a Learner passing their final assessment.

The Learner is only entitled to support between (1) the date of their enrolment, i.e., when they receive their first assignment, and (2) the earlier of (a) their enrolment expiry (12 months after enrolment) or (b) their successful completion of their qualification.

Support can only be provided in relation qualifications provided by Practical Financial Exams Limited in which they are actively enrolled and cannot be provided for any other purpose.

In every e-mail to the Exam Helpline, Learners must:

- 1) Sufficiently identify themselves so as to enable us to confirm they are eligible to use it
- 2) Head their e-mail "EXAM HELPLINE" or words to this effect
- 3) Only ask questions explicitly related to the syllabus or their assessment

Where the e-mail doesn't conform to these requirements, a standard e-mail is sent requesting they re-send the e-mail in line with the requirements. The rationale here is to prevent access to those who have not paid for use of the Helpline, and to ensure consistency and validity of the Helpline service.

Practical Financial Exams Limited reserves the right to respond that we do not know the answer to questions; we do not guarantee answers. Further, we reserve the right to refuse to answer Helpline questions where doing so could cause harm or could be considered a breach of our Conduct Rules.

All answers provided via the Exam Helpline are the opinion of the individual providing them, based on their knowledge, at the time provided. Neither Practical Financial Exams Limited, nor the individual providing the answer, can accept responsibility for any action being taken, or refrained from being taken, whether in an assessment or in any other scenario, because of any information provided, or not provided, via the Exam Helpline.

While every effort will be made to meet the 48-hour timescale, there is no guarantee of this, and the response may be postponed indefinitely without notice or liability.

Practical Financial Exams Limited will retain all Exam Helpline communications and our responses for twelve (12) months, and they may be provided to our External Verifier for quality assurance purposes. Please refer to our Policies, Processes, and Procedures document for further details of our External Verification process: <https://practicalfinancialexams.co.uk/scqf-credit-rating>

We aim to investigate the complaint and reach an outcome within eight (8) weeks of the date of the complaint. Where the Internal Verifier finds the complaint to be justified, we will make an appropriate offer of compensation.

Complaints and their corresponding outcomes are recorded and held by Practical Financial Exams Limited for twelve (12) months and may be provided to the External Verifier where required, in line with our External Verification Process. Please refer to our Policies, Processes, and Procedures document for further details of our External Verification process: <https://practicalfinancialexams.co.uk/scqf-credit-rating>
