

SCQF Level 9 Financial Philosophy & Ethics

Learner Commitment & Academic Standards

The SCQF Level 9 Financial Philosophy & Ethics qualification is a 150-hour, credit-rated programme designed to develop advanced ethical reasoning and professional judgement.

By enrolling on this programme, I acknowledge and agree to the following:

1. Intellectual Engagement

I understand that this qualification is developmental in nature and requires structured reading, reflective analysis, and independent written work.

I acknowledge that professional experience alone is insufficient to complete this programme successfully without sustained academic engagement.

2. Time Commitment

I confirm that I am able to commit the necessary time and attention required to complete the qualification to the required Level 9 academic standard.

3. Fixed Deadlines

I understand that all stated deadlines are fixed.

I accept that extensions will only be granted in documented exceptional circumstances.

4. Sequential Progression

I understand that progression through the qualification is staged.

I must achieve a pass in each assignment before progressing to the next stage.

Parallel or overlapping submission is not permitted.

5. Resubmission Policy

If my work does not meet the required standard, I will receive structured feedback and the opportunity to re-submit.

I understand that the qualification assesses independent reasoning and is not a writing tuition programme.

6. Academic Integrity & Use of Artificial Intelligence

I confirm that all submitted work will be my own.

I understand that the use of generative AI tools to draft or substantially compose assignments is prohibited.

I acknowledge that I may be required to defend and elaborate on my written work during the professional discussion stage.

Failure to demonstrate ownership of submitted work may result in academic misconduct proceedings.

7. Professional Conduct

I agree to attend scheduled sessions and professional discussions punctually and conduct myself in a professional manner throughout the programme.
