General Information:

As a new Florida resident, you must obtain a valid Florida driver license within 30 days of establishing residency to drive on Florida roads. In addition, you must obtain insurance from a Florida insurance agent that is licensed to sell insurance in Florida in order to title and register your vehicle(s), vessel(s), and mobile home(s) within 10 days of establishing residency.

You are considered a Florida resident if you have:

- Started employment in Florida
- Enrolled your child(ren) in a public school in Florida
- Registered to vote in Florida
- Filed for homestead tax exemption on property in Florida
- Lived in Florida for a period of more than six consecutive months

Transfer a Valid Out of State Driver License to Florida

The following is required to transfer a valid out of state license to a Florida Driver License:

1. United States Birth Certificate OR valid United States Passport. A birth certificate must be issued by a government agency.
2. Surrender of the out of state license.
3. Social Security Card or W-2 form, paycheck stub or Form 1099 with full social security number listed.
4. Vision test done in office.
5. Proof of residential address requires two of the following reflecting your name and address: deed, mortgage statement, lease agreement, voter registration, vehicle registration, W2 form, 1099 form, or a homeowners, automobile, or life insurance policy. For a complete list of items, click Proof of Residential Address.
6. If the documentation submitted reflects any name change, an original or certified copy of your Marriage License, Divorce Decree or Court Order, must be submitted. In some instances, more than one marriage license, divorce decree or court order document may be required to show the chain of name changes. Photocopies cannot be accepted. Marriage license must be from a governmental agency. Church issued licenses cannot be accepted.

If the out-of-state license is expired, suspended, or revoked, a written and/or road test may be required.
