The Old Mill Singers

The Old Mill Singers was formed in the early 1970s when Ruth Buzalski, a nurse from Phelps Hospital, asked the organist at St. Mary's Episcopal Church in Scarborough, Gary Brätt, if he'd be willing to volunteer to direct a small chorale. He enthusiastically said "Yes!" and as the founding Musical Director, would go on to lead and inspire the group for over 40 years. A group of eight then met over the next few weeks, preparing a short Christmas program to perform for the Phelps staff party and patients, aptly named "The First Choral Concert." After the holiday season, the Phelps Hospital administrator suggested that the group try to grow, and a recruitment drive began. By 1974, the group, initially named the Phelps Art Society, had 50 members and presented the three-night centerpiece show "A Dutch Treat," for the Sleepy Hollow bicentennial celebration.

Desiring to be more community-oriented, the group's name became the Old Mill Singers, a nod to a local landmark, the old gristmill at Philipsburg Manor. Outreach to local nursing homes and special care facilities in the area became a key focus for the group, in addition to bi-annual concerts. It has remained a focal point for the group and all of its members. Today, the group continues to grow in number with members from many surrounding communities. Reflecting the influence and legacy of founding Musical Director, Gary Brätt, the Old Mill Singers remain dedicated to community service, community within the chorus itself, having fun, and learning new and challenging music. It's an open group with members that have many different levels of musical ability and experience. The only requirement is the ability to sing in tune. Many Old Mill Singers members don't read music.

Notes from Our Director—

This season we have explored American song traditions and the huge "tapestry" of musical genres found throughout our country's 250 year history. Our program reaches back to colonial composer, William Billings, and concludes with a medley from Lin Manuel Miranda's "Hamilton" — with many stops along the way.

We have delved into classic Broadway and folk melodies along with the iconic spiritual "Deep River" and the quintessentially American "Shenandoah." We swing into Motown and jazz as well as a great Elvis tune. We present classic Woodie Guthrie, rhythmic Johnny Cash, and songs from Carole King's "Tapestry" album—how fitting! We have included American songbook, country western favorites, and other legendary rock songs.

If Old Mill Singers has not included something you think should be included in this musical tapestry, there is a good chance you'll hear it in our kids' chorus medleys!

We hope you enjoy our concert as much as we have enjoyed putting it together!

— Nell Macdonald

About the Director

Nell Macdonald is passionate about choral singing and is delighted to be part of the Old Mill Singers. Since 2015, she has directed the Scarborough Singers, a women's chorus that performs locally. She is also the Artistic Director of the a capella ensemble Sing We Enchanted which she founded in 1994. For the past several seasons, she has directed the Kendal Chorale at the Kendal-on-Hudson senior residence. For the past fifteen years, she has directed children's choirs at the Reformed Church of the Tarrytowns and previously was the youth and children's choir director for five choirs (K-12) at the Reformed Church of Bronxville. In addition, she was also an Associate Conductor with the Children's Aid Society Choral program for three years, and was Assistant Minister of Music at the Memorial Community Church in West Harrison.

Nell appeared in solo cabaret shows and recitals in the New York area and in Europe. Her favorite off-Broadway productions include an original production of Pride and Prejudice (Mrs. Bennett), Pirates of Penzance (Ruth), Sound of Music (Mother Abbess), and Evita (Evita's Mother).

Nell has sung oratorio roles with the TreasureHouse Chorale and Orchestra, and operatic roles with the Hudson Lyric Opera Company. She also appeared as a soloist with the Hudson River Quartet, the Northern Westchester symphony, Rockland Symphony Orchestra and other NY-based orchestras.

Nell has been teaching voice for over twenty years, producing annual cabaret shows, open mic shows, and Broadway reviews. Her private students have been chosen in national ACDA competitions, All-Nationals (NYSSMA), as well as prestigious vocal arts summer programs, musical theatre college programs, and traditional conservatory arts programs. Former students have gone on to become musical theater singers and directors, singer/songwriters, touring band musicians, and opera singers.

Nell studied piano with Robert Levin in the prep division at the Manhattan School of Music, with Seymour Fink in the piano department at Binghamton University, and received a BFA in vocal performance, magna cum laude at the Purchase Conservatory at S.U.N.Y. Purchase. She lives in Ossining with her daughter Elizabeth and her husband Dave, who is a Professor of Music at Manhattan School of Music.
