

NHFRW BYLAWS

ARTICLE I

Name

NHFRW BYLAWS

Section 1: The name of this organization shall be the New Hampshire Federation of Republican Women (NHFRW).

ARTICLE II Objectives

- To promote an informed public through education and political and social activity.
- To increase the effectiveness of women in the cause of good government.
- To facilitate cooperation among the National (NFRW) and State Federations of Republican Women and the local clubs.
- To foster loyalty to the Republican Party and to promote its principles and candidates in all elections, including non-partisan elections.
- To support the objectives and policies of the Republican National Committee and the New Hampshire Republican State Committee.
- To promote the principles of freedom, equality and justice on which the government of this country is founded.

ARTICLE III

Membership

Section 1: Eligibility

- A. A local club in good standing is one whose current dues and service charge are paid in accordance with NFRW deadlines.
- B. An individual member in good standing is one whose current dues are paid in a local club and who adheres to the NHFRW bylaws and policies.

- C. Neither a local club nor an individual member that publicly endorses a split ticket or an opposition ticket shall be admitted or continued in membership.

Section 2: Membership in NHFRW shall be extended to all local clubs.

Section 3: Qualifications:

- A. Local clubs shall consist of ten or more women who form a permanent organization, adopt bylaws in compliance with NHFRW and NFRW bylaws, pay dues and service charges and hold at least four meetings within a twelve-month period if unusual circumstances prohibit more frequent meetings.
- B. A local club may be admitted to and continue in membership if the club bylaws are not in conflict with NFRW and NHFRW bylaws and objectives.
- C. Only local club members in good standing are eligible to be delegates or alternates to a state or NFRW meeting or convention and shall be counted from only one local club for the purpose of representation.

Section 4: Application for New Local Clubs:

- A. Applications for new clubs shall be sent to the NHFRW President and shall be accompanied by:
- The name of the club, which shall contain the word Republican in the title and may use the word “federated” but shall not use the word “federation”.
 - The list of names, addresses, including zip codes, telephone numbers and e-mail addresses, if available, of officers and members.
- B. Clubs shall be accepted to membership only after their bylaws have been filed with NHFRW and approved by the state executive board, and their dues and service charge have been paid.
- C. A local club shall be in good standing for at least 6 months prior to the NFRW Biennial Convention to be eligible for representation. The six-month period begins on the date the NHFRW President notifies the NFRW President in writing by mail, fax or email that the local club’s bylaws have been approved at the state level and the local club’s dues and service charge have been received by the NFRW office. This notification by the NHFRW State President shall be accompanied by the name of the local club and the name and contact information of the local unit president.

Section 5: Suspension, removal and reinstatement:

- A. A local club may be suspended from membership by action of the Advisory Board for any of the following reasons:
- Bylaws which are in conflict with NHFRW or NFRW bylaws or failure to support the NHFRW bylaws.
 - Non-payment of dues and current service charge after proper notification.
 - Failure to support the party ticket, advocating a split ticket, or supporting a candidate on an opposition ticket.
 - Failure to maintain a minimum of 10 members and to hold at least 4 meetings within a 12 month period.

- B. A local club suspended or removed from membership for a cause or a club which has a grievance may petition a Committee of Appeals to consider the problem and make a recommendation to the Executive Board for action. A majority vote of the Executive Board present and voting is required for reinstatement.
- C. The Committee of Appeals shall consist of the first vice president, the presidents of two local clubs appointed by the nominating committee, the immediate past president and the three directors.
- D. Upon dissolution of a local club, its funds shall be remitted to the NHFRW treasury if reorganization does not occur within 2 years.

The New Hampshire Federation of Republican Women

Code of Conduct Policy

The New Hampshire Federation of Republican Women Code of Conduct is one of the ways we put our values into practice. All members in the New Hampshire Federation of Republican Women must abide by these guidelines as they are standards to support our success. Violation of these guidelines may result in membership suspension, termination, and/or removal from office on the Executive or Advisory Board.

Our Principles:

The New Hampshire Federation of Republican Women is committed to a respectful, safe, and inclusive environment for all members. Members will be held accountable for their actions and hold others accountable as appropriate. Harassment, discrimination, intimidation, defamation of character, libel and/or slander, abuse, bullying, doxing, threats, acts of retaliation or any other illegal activity whether in person, in digital communication, at meetings, programs, or events are prohibited.

Party Loyalty:

As stated in the NHFRW bylaws, we are a Republican organization committed to supporting, engaging, educating, empowering, and electing Republicans and standing united as a Party. Members who actively support parties other than the Republican Party may be subjected to membership suspension, termination, and/or removal from office on the Executive or Advisory Board. NHFRW leadership shall support current Party leadership while representing the Federation, whenever it is possible to do so.

Officers of the Executive Board, as well as Advisory Board Members including Appointed Standing/Special Chairs and Club Presidents, in accepting their respective positions, agree to represent and promote the New Hampshire Federation of Republican Women in a positive manner. An Executive Board or Advisory Board Member making public negative comments against the organization or NHFRW leadership, may be subjected to membership suspension, termination, and/or removal from office on the Executive or Advisory Board.

Integrity & Objectivity:

Members shall act with honesty and truthfulness in all forms of communication. Members shall treat one another with respect, objectively listen to facts, and not knowingly misrepresent facts or subordinate judgment upon others.
