

Statement of Adoption – Revised Bylaws

The following document shall constitute the duly adopted and governing Bylaws of the American Federation of Government Employees, AFL-CIO, Local 2544.

These Bylaws were approved by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the members present and voting at a properly noticed meeting held on February 11, 2026, in accordance with Article X of these Bylaws and Article XIX, Section 3(c) of the AFGE National Constitution.

Upon approval by the membership and subsequent approval by the National Executive Council as required by the AFGE National Constitution, these Bylaws shall supersede and replace all prior bylaws of AFGE Local 2544, including the bylaws approved September 3, 2014.

These Bylaws shall remain in full force and effect until amended in accordance with the procedures contained herein and the AFGE National Constitution.

Section 4. Retired Members. Retired members shall not be eligible to be candidates for or serve in any elected office of this Local.

Section 5. Active Employment Requirement (Mandatory Resignation).

A. All elected officers must be actively employed within the bargaining unit represented by AFGE Local 2544 throughout their entire term of office.

B. Any officer who retires from the United States Border Patrol, separates from federal service, transfers outside the Local's jurisdiction, or otherwise ceases to be an active employee within the bargaining unit during their term of office shall automatically vacate the office effective on the date of separation.

C. No vote of the Executive Board or membership shall be required to effectuate such vacancy.

D. The vacancy shall be filled in accordance with Article V (Vacancies).

Section 6. Officer Obligation. All officers shall be administered the "Officer's Obligation" contained in the AFGE National Constitution upon their installation in office.

ARTICLE V – VACANCIES

Section 1. Vacancy Declaration. If an officer retires, resigns, separates from federal service, transfers outside the Local's jurisdiction, or ceases to be an active employee within the bargaining unit, the office shall be declared vacant immediately.

Section 2. Succession. In the case of a vacancy in the office of President, the Executive Vice President shall fill the unexpired term. If the Executive Vice President is unable or unwilling to serve, the First, Second, and then Third Vice President, in order, shall fill the vacancy.

Section 3. Special Election. If the Executive Board is unable to fill the vacancy through succession, the Executive Board shall call a special election consistent with Appendix A of the AFGE National Constitution.

ARTICLE VI – COMPENSATION AND PROHIBITION ON RETIRED MEMBER CONTRACTS

Section 1. Post-Retirement Compensation Prohibited. No elected officer shall receive compensation from the Local after retirement from federal service.

Section 2. Retired Member Contract Prohibited. No retired member, including any former officer of this Local, may enter into any compensated agreement with the Local, including but not limited to consulting agreements, contracts, stipends, salary arrangements, bookkeeping services, administrative services, or any paid advisory role.

Section 3. Contracting Limitation. Any bookkeeping, administrative, or professional services required by the Local shall be performed only by active members or by non-member third parties who are not retired members of AFGE Local 2544.

ARTICLE VII – NOMINATIONS AND ELECTIONS

Section 1. Election Cycle. Nominations for Executive Board officers shall be held in October of every third year, with elections (if necessary) held in November of the election year. Installation of officers shall take place at the December meeting of each election year.

Section 2. Notice of Elections.

A. Notification of contested elections shall be posted on the Local's website no later than September 1st of each election year.

B. The Local shall employ reasonable efforts to inform members at station musters of any upcoming nominations and elections.

C. In addition to Local notice requirements, all notices required by Appendix A of the AFGE National Constitution shall be followed, including mailing requirements and minimum notice periods.

Section 3. Election Committee.

A. An Election Committee shall be elected by majority vote of the Local members present and voting at a meeting prior to the start of the nomination procedure.

B. The Election Committee shall be responsible for selecting the balloting method to be used and for establishing the rules that will govern the actual balloting.

C. No member of the Election Committee may be a candidate for any office in that election.
D. The Election Committee shall ensure the election is conducted by secret ballot and in accordance with Appendix A of the AFGE National Constitution.
Section 4. Voting Eligibility. Only members of the Local in good standing shall be allowed to vote.
Section 5. Balloting Method.
A. Elections shall be conducted either by:
Mail ballot mailed to each eligible member's last known address; or
In-person balloting completed by eligible members at polling places set up at each of the stations within the Tucson Sector.
B. The Election Committee shall determine the method to be used.
C. If in-person polling is used, the Election Committee may elect to use stewards as polling place monitors to facilitate polling places at each station.
Section 6. Assistance. The National Border Patrol Council may be asked to provide any additional election assistance that may be needed.
Section 7. Majority Vote. Executive Board members shall be elected if they receive a majority of the member votes submitted by a deadline set by the Election Committee.
Section 8. Run-Off Elections. If there is more than one candidate for a particular office and no candidate receives a majority of the votes, then the two candidates receiving the highest number of votes shall have a run-off election. The candidate receiving a majority of the votes submitted by a deadline set by the Election Committee shall be declared the winner.
Section 9. Candidate Statements. Candidates may provide a one-page attachment listing qualifications for the position.
Section 10. Prohibition on Use of Union Funds. No monies received by way of dues, assessment, or similar levy shall be contributed or applied to promote the candidacy of any person in a Local election.
Section 11. Membership List for Candidates. The Election Committee shall provide a list of members to any candidate for election upon written request, consistent with AFGE election rules.
Section 12. Records. The Election Committee shall maintain all election records as required under Appendix A of the AFGE National Constitution.

ARTICLE VIII – DUES

Section 1. Active Member Dues. Active member dues shall be established in accordance with AFGE Article XIX and Article XXIV and shall include sufficient funds to pay:
AFGE per capita tax
NBPC per capita tax
Any required council dues
Local operating expenses
Section 2. Retired Member Dues. Retired member dues shall be paid annually prior to the last day of January for the current year. The rate for retired members shall be:
