

JOIN OUR TEAM

We're on a mission to create a more inclusive culture for women and girls in Cricket.

Our programmes are growing & this is your chance to be involved.

The role of a THL Champion

As female role models, you are inspiring those following in your footsteps. We would love you to join us as a Take Her Lead Champion.

THL Champions help deliver our flagship mentoring programmes, running engaging workshops and activities to girls from under-represented groups and ethnically diverse communities.

The difference you can make

- Inspire the next generation
- Empower young players to have a voice
- Learn skills beyond the pitch
- Elevate your profile and the profile of Women & Girls Cricket

About Take Her Lead

We believe cricket is a game for every woman & girl.

Take Her Lead is a charity founded to promote equality and diversity in Cricket, healthy recreation and leisure for the public benefit by working to eliminate discrimination on the grounds of sex or gender.

We aim to increase the participation of women and girls and to assist in the provision of facilities, equipment and opportunities for women and girls.

OUR VISION

- For cricket to be a place where every woman and girl can fulfil their potential and thrive, within the game and beyond.

OUR MISSION

- To enable a more inclusive culture for women and girls, by empowering, amplifying and connecting across the cricket community.

What's involved

- Paid work delivering innovative, engaging workshops and activities and collecting insight to help shape the future of cricket.
- Training and upskilling to equip you for this role & beyond, plus ongoing support & development with access to exclusive career development opportunities
- Opportunity to give back to the game, inspire the next generation & positively impact the future of cricket
