Owner: Dan & Sandy Geiman

Welcome to Yellow Star Acre's. Danny & Sandy Geiman are the owners and operators of this mini farm. Danny is a 5th generation farmer who grew up and was raised on a farm in Grant's Lick, Ky having raised tobacco, beef cattle, and lots of gardens. Later he moved to Pendleton Co. where he continued raising tobacco. After the tobacco buyout, he started raising Long Horn cattle for beef.

In 2015 we took the opportunity to back to Campbell County purchasing 6 acres of country soil. We built our home and continued raising Long Horn and added some goats for entertainment and of course a few dogs. We call it our mini farm.

Today, we enjoy raising our animals and growing gardens. It all starts with seed in our little greenhouse. Growing strawberries and a lot of vegetables for making jams and preserves, canning and freezing lots of veggies. It's amazing what you can do with a mini farm.

We love every minute of it as we also enjoy our four children along with their spouses and our four beautiful grandsons.

Stop by anytime and visit we welcome everyone!
