Conservation and Other Natural Resources Scholarships Available

Applications for the Campbell County Conservation District scholarship are now available through the district office. Three $1,000 scholarships will be awarded to students who are enrolled in one of the following fields of study: natural resource conservation, forestry, soil science, ecology, wildlife science, agriculture, or biology with a focus on conservation.

Applicants must be Campbell County residents. High school students planning to enter college in the fall of 2020, as well as students currently attending college, are eligible to apply. Previous scholarship recipients are eligible to apply. Applications must be postmarked or returned to the district office by Friday, January 17, 2020. Recipients will be notified by March 1.

Several other scholarship opportunities are available for students pursuing careers in agriculture and natural resources. Two $1,000 statewide scholarships are offered by the Kentucky Association of Conservation Districts Auxiliary. The Conservation of Natural Resources Scholarship is for students currently enrolled in college and the George Crafton Memorial Scholarship is for high school seniors entering college the next fall. The deadline for applications to the Conservation District Office is Friday, February 21, 2020. More information on these scholarships can be found at <https://eec.ky.gov/Natural-Resources/Conservation/Pages/Scholarships.aspx>.

Any questions, please contact the Campbell County Conservation District, 8350 East Main Street, Alexandria, KY 41001, phone 859-635-9587, E-mail campbellcd@fuse.net or visit the district's web site at www.campbellkyconservation.org.
