

OUR SOLUTION

City Blocks campus-based student wellness centers for grade levels 4-12 are located at K-12 school districts or in collaboration with community-based organizations. These centers offer a holistic approach grounded in cognitive behavior therapy and dialectal behavior therapy, which guides change by engaging individuals in cognitive restructuring or reshaping mindsets.