February Newsletter 2026

Family, instead of writing a newsletter for February, I want to give a summary of what David shared on January 18th, following the first meeting of the leadership team on January 13th. I/we want you to be as informed as possible as we move through transition. To hear all that David shared, you can listen to the opening part of the January 18th service. Thank you, Pastor Mike.

- The leadership team is made up of the 3 elders, the 2 trustees, along with Matt and Beverley. Each team member has a unique set of skills. This will certainly help as they work together. It is the desire of each member to be led by the Holy Spirit to execute God's plan for LSM.
- The leadership team is committed to the Lord and wants to see the Kingdom expanded through the sharing of the gospel of Jesus. We all love LSM. LSM is not this building, it is each and every one of you.
- The Leadership team plans to meet every 6 weeks to pray and seek direction.
- We agree that moving forward, LSM will be an Elder led church. The leadership team meetings will consist of working out the details. Pastor Mike taught about elders on January 25th. If you haven't heard this message yet, please listen.
- We are not looking for a Pastor. Pastor Matt will be handling the day-to-day role once Mike is retired. The elders will be serving in bigger leadership and support roles.
- Up until Pastor Mike's retirement, and perhaps after that, one elder will be meeting with Mike, Matt and Beverley, every 2 weeks, to gain insight into things we may not know about. Hopefully this can offer support to the staff.
- We will also continue with our regularly scheduled monthly elders meetings along with Mike & Matt.
- During this transition time, we plan to give the congregation regular updates by letter. As needed, things will also be shared from the pulpit.
- Lastly, we all want Mike and Tracy to finish strong. Mike will be involved in the process of putting things down on paper to help us set the policies and procedures that are needed for LSM to be around until the Lord returns.

When you have questions or need clarification, please feel free to ask.
