Galatians 5:1. Stand fast therefore in the liberty by which Christ has made us free, and do not be entangled again with a yoke of bondage

Dear Family,

We are incredibly blessed to have the freedoms we do as citizens of the U.S., but our greatest blessings are the freedoms we have in Christ. This letter encourages you to focus on that.

The verse at the top of the page is a good summary verse for the entire book of Galatians. Many Gentiles in Galatia had placed their faith in Christ and been justified as a result. Some of the Jews in Galatia, who confessed in Christ, told the Gentiles they couldn't be saved without keeping the Mosaic Law. In Galatians 1:8 & 9 Paul calls this another gospel, and says it's a false gospel and if anyone preaches it let them be accursed (cut off).

Galatians 5:1 makes three points that applied to the Church in Galatia, and also very much applies to us today. 1) It is Christ who has made us free 2) We must stand fast, (be willing to fight) to walk out that liberty, and 3) Don't allow ourselves to be entangled in a yoke of bondage.

Christ fought a war against all the forces of darkness and defeated them through His death, burial and resurrection. He won the victory to give us our freedom. We must fix our eyes on Jesus and, in faith, claim our freedom in Him.

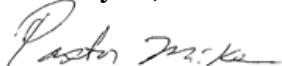

Below I'm listing a few of the freedoms we have - with the reminder we must choose to walk them out. Read through them slowly asking the Lord to reveal things to you.

- The forgiveness of sins.
- Victory over sin as we live in the power of the Holy Spirit.
- Freedom from condemnation, shame, and guilt.
- Freedom from fear.
- Freedom to forgive others as God for Christ's sake has forgiven us.
- Freedom to know that you are loved by God.
- Freedom to know you have worth because you are made in the image of God and He gave His Son to die for you.
- Freedom to serve.
- Freedom to love.
- Freedom to give.
- Freedom to not be offended. Proverbs 19:11
- Freedom to share the gospel with others.
- Freedom to pray for others.
- Freedom to join God in His purpose.
- Freedom to be a peacemaker.
- Freedom from God's wrath.
- Freedom to live with eternal hope and the assurance of victory.

Now add your own to the list.

May the Lord cleanse our hearts of anything that is holding us in bondage and may we experience the complete freedom of walking in His victory.

I love you,

Pastor Mike
