DID YOU KNOW?

Giving red roses wasn't a romantic gesture until the late 17th century when it became popular. The practice can be traced back to when King Charles II of Sweden learned the "language of flowers" (which pairs different flowers with specific meanings) on a trip to Persia, and introduced the tradition to Europe. The act of giving flowers then became a popular trend during the Victorian Era (including on Valentine's Day) with red roses symbolizing deep love.

RED VELVET CAKE MIX COOKIES

Ingredients:

1 package Red Velvet Cake Mix standard size cake mix - for this recipe Duncan Hines was used 1 cup white chocolate chips 1/2 cup oil
2 large eggs
1/4 cup all-purpose flour

Directions:

Preheat oven to 350 degrees F. Prepare baking sheets with silicone mats or parchment paper.
In a large bowl combine all ingredients, and mix until combined, however do not overmix.

Using a cookie scoop or spoon, scoop dough onto prepared baking sheets, approximately 2-3 tablespoons of dough each. Use hands to shape into balls, then gently make balls taller than wider. This helps prevent cookies from spreading too much.

Bake for 10-12 minutes, then remove from oven. Allow to cool on baking sheet, on a wire cooling rack, for five minutes.
Then using a spatula, transfer cookies to a wire cooling rack and cool completely. Repeat with remaining cookies.
