Why Thorne?

Formulas are based on science

- / Thorne is the only supplement company the Mayo Clinic works with to conduct clinical trials and provide educational content.

Leading standard for quality and purity

- / We invest in comprehensive testing, sourcing high quality ingredients, and creating a clean manufacturing process to provide solutions for your health. Thorne does not use unnecessary fillers or binders.

World-class collaborations

- / Thorne partners with the Mayo Clinic, Cleveland Clinic, Johns Hopkins, U.S. National Teams, 95 professional sports teams, and the UFC. Thorne has more NSF Certified for Sport® products than any other company.

*You must confirm us as your HCP referral during account creation in order to receive your exclusive discount and free shipping. Discount excludes health tests and bundles.
