

WAY OUT WEST

MATH CON

National Speakers and local rockstars will convene in Maricopa County for the 5th Annual Way Out West Math Con on Saturday, November 16th! Will you be among them? The AATM Way Out West Math Con '24 provides dynamic, face-to-face networking and learning opportunities from national and local award-winning math education mavericks who will share the rules they're breaking to transform K-12 math classrooms for ALL student populations and ALL teachers. The theme of this year's conference is Rethink, Re-Engage, and Renew! WOW Math Con '24 is a great way to engage with your math community and discover ways to transform! This year, Fawn Nguyen will present break-out sessions, among AZ math teachers & leaders, and provide the keynote address. Join us and bring a team to this can't miss event where you can ignite a wildfire of learning!
