Rockland Professional Services ("Rockland Pros") is an Accounting and Consulting firm that assists clients who face financial, operational, and technological challenges.

Professional service fees will be based on the nature and scope of work performed by Rockland Pros. Some services will be billed at fixed rates; other services will be billed based on time charges for services rendered by professionals of the Firm.

Estimates are not a guarantee of cost for service; Estimates are made in good faith based assumptions derived from information provided by the Client/Prospective Client. Clients/Prospective Clients are responsible for disclosing all relevant information in order to prepare a good faith Estimate.

Although historical information provides a reasonable baseline for preparing Estimates, this method assumes that there have not been, nor will be, any significant changes. This includes changes (or potential changes) to existing policies, procedures, standards, guidelines or laws.

Deviations from the assumptions used to prepare an Estimate may impact our professional service fees. All fees will be charged based on actual work performed.
