■ The competition maintains limited fitness analytical data. Only PANDA can track over 350+ workouts that athletes can compare individually.

▲ Team Snap outsources their college recruiting to NCSA. User maintains one account in NCSA and one in Team Snap. NCSA is a subscriber service.

* PANDA purchases the web domain. PANDA charges the client at cost for the web domain. There are charges for customizing the client web site.

⚡ PANDA Profiles are athletic resumes. Only competition providing college recruiting services rival the state-of-the-art PANDA profile system and presentation.
