To check the status of an existing request, you may enter your FOIPA Request Number into the FBI's FOIA online status tool at www.fbi.gov/foiastatus. Status checks are performed weekly and posted to our site. The status of newly assigned requests may not be available until the next weekly update. If the FOIPA has closed, the notice will indicate the appropriate correspondence was mailed to the address on file.

Additional information about the FOIPA can be found at www.fbi.gov/foia. Should you have questions regarding your request, you may contact fbi.foia@fbi.gov, referencing your assigned FOIPA Request Number. This will help the FBI identify your request and aid in a timelier response.

If you are not satisfied with the FBI's determination in response to this request, you may proceed under any or all of the following options:

- You may seek support through the FBI's dispute resolution services through our FOIA Public Liaison by emailing fbi.foia@fbi.gov. The subject heading should clearly state "Dispute Resolution Services." Please also include the FOIPA Request Number assigned to your request.

Please reference the FOIPA Request Number listed above in your correspondence so it may be easily identified. If possible, please provide a copy of your original request and this response letter with your appeal.

Note: Utilizing the FBI's dispute resolution services or requesting mediation through OGIS does not toll the ninety (90) day limit to file a timely appeal with OIP.
