

Programs

Rent and Utility Assistance Program

The City of Deerfield Beach is accepting Rental and Utility Assistance applications to income eligible city residents affected by COVID-19 due to job loss or pay-cuts.

The program will provide up to $10,000 per household for past due rent and utility cost. The program is funded through Community Development Block Grant Coronavirus (CDBG-CV)- $989,121 and State of Florida Coronavirus Relief Funds (CRF)- $492,000. The one-time assistance will be in the form of a grant and does not require repayment.

The program is available to low to moderate- income residents that meet the income criteria as determined by the US Department of Housing and Urban Development, see income chart below.

Household Size	1	2	3	4	5	6
Maximum Income Per Household	$49,950	$57,050	$64,200	$71,300	$77,050	$82,750

Required documents include:

- Notice of delinquency for rent
- Proof of I.D. or Valid Driver's License
- Two most current years signed Federal Income Tax Return or Transcript from the IRS
- Proof of Income
- Proof of loss of income (due to COVID-19)
- Hardship Letter (explaining loss of income due to COVID-19)
- W-9 for Landlord
- Recent utility bill (light, water and natural gas) showing past due amount

Frequently Asked Questions \(FAQ's\)

CLICK HERE TO APPLY NOW

For additional information please contact Jonathan Salas in the Legislative and Community Affairs Department at (954)480-6420 or jsalas@deerfield-beach.com or Loleta Harris at 954-425-8449, ext.113 or lharris@dbhaonline.org