Meet Cathy Devaney

Cathy Devaney is founder of Devaney Financial and has been a Colorado CPA since 2022 and previously a Virginia CPA from 1994–2001. She is a global financial professional with a very diverse background. She has a Masters in Finance and an MBA from CU Denver.

She has 25 years as an audit and tax professional with personal and corporate taxation. 15 years as a CFO/Controller specializing in professional services in addition to working with Non-profits.

Her experience also includes being a software implementation specialist with platforms such as Quickbooks, QBO, Intacct, Netsuite, Xero, Clio and Centerbase.

Her diversity lends itself to being able to provide clients with a wide range of support, including business budgeting, and collaborating with your financial advisor to sync business goals with personal financial goals.

When she is not meeting with clients you can find her traveling to the Caribbean, hanging in the Colorado Mountains or watching her granddaughters play soccer.
