Meet Kevin Hocker

Kevin Hocker is a financial advisor who specializes in helping federal employees get the most out of their federal benefit packages. With over 17 years of experience in the financial services industry, Kevin brings a wealth of knowledge and value to his clients.

Kevin strongly believes that the quality of his relationships is the key to his clients' success. He says, "It's all about putting the relationship first and having a genuine desire to clearly understand the unique values, circumstances, goals, and personalities of each client. "This approach has earned Kevin numerous accolades, including awards for his inspirational writing, and speaking skills.

An award-winning author of three books, Kevin's work has been praised by business leaders, Olympic gold -medalists, and Hall of Fame coaches. His leadership style and empowering perspective make him an indispensable resource in the financial services industry.

Kevin is committed to his belief that teaching is a societal responsibility and pursues this calling with unwavering passion. He disseminates the information he feels will make a substantial contribution to those he services, providing his clients with meaningful solutions to their financial challenges.

Working with Kevin is an uplifting and positive experience, as he brings his infectious energy and passion to every interaction. When he's not busy educating his clients, Kevin can be found enjoying the great outdoors or spending time with his family.
