

BOWLING NEWS

Vol. 1 Issue 5

JULY 2019

GEORGIA GAMES

Our Association was well represented at the recent Georgia Games held on July 6-7 at the Brunswick Zone Lilburn Center in Lawrenceville. Attending from our Association were Sarah Chumbley, Lois Ashley, Ines Bergstrom, Nicki Austin, Bill Cox, Dave Warren and Glenda Warren. Everyone except Lois and Glenda transferred to bowl on Sunday either in semi-finals or finals. Sarah, Dave and Bill were in the finals and Bill won a gold medal. Next year's games will be held later in July so it doesn't interfere with the July 4th weekend.

Coming Events

August 2-4 - 2019 Georgia Jamboree
to be held at the Ridges Resort & Marina in Hiawassee

FALL/WINTER LEAGUES will be starting soon. Get your teams ready for signing up.

MEET YOUR BOARD

Glenda Warren has served as a Director in the Association since January of this year. She was born in Cookeville, Tennessee and raised in Macon, Georgia. She and her husband Dave owned and operated a Graphic Arts Services company in the Daytona Beach Area for nearly 25 years. They retired and moved to Murphy, NC in 2015. Married for 47 years they don't have any children, but have had several fur babies through the years. Glenda started league bowling just a couple of years ago and currently bowls on the Young at Heart Senior League. Her immediate goal is to bowl a 200, her highest score so far is 187. Something most people don't know is that she and Dave share the same birthday, he is about 6 hours older.
