Championship Cup — No. 8

Villanova University, taking its fifth team title in nine years, retired the seventh Championship Cup in 1970 and now the eighth trophy is in competition. It was the second straight time that the Wildcats had retired the trophy. They captured their first after their 1962 triumph. To earn that one, they took the team title in 1957, 1958, 1960, 1961 and 1962. Then they won the championship in 1966, 1967, 1968 and 1970.

As has been the pattern during the competition for the seventh trophy, it was Maryland that gave the Wildcats their stiffest battle. While Villanova was scoring 32 points a year ago, the Terrapins finished second with 31, the Wildcats taking only one individual title to the Terps' three. Adelphi, which finished third in team scoring, with 27 points, also took three individual titles.

Of the five former cups, two were won by Harvard (which leads in team victories with 13) and one each by Yale, Cornell and Southern California.
